Hopkins & Co., wholesale and retail dealers in stoves, tinware, and house-furnishing goods, and in this line of trade they have been eminently successful. Their business house on Twenty-first Street, between First and Second Avenues, is one of the most imposing on that thoroughfare. Their line of goods takes a wide range, and embraces stoves, ranges, mantels, grates, tinware, roofing, galvanized-iron cornice work, etc., and their trade extends over a wide territory.

Mr. Hopkins is one of the Magic City's most prosperous citizens, and a reliable business man. He was united in marriage in June, 1879, to Miss Madeline, daughter of Dr. Tell Saunders, of Madison County, Alabama. They have three children—Ann Eliza, Bessie, and Gertrude.

Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins are prominent members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. Mr. Hopkins has been steward for the past three years, and an active worker in the Sunday school.

Thomas C. Thompson is an extraordinary man. He has made his way to influence and fortune by an unobtrusive, courageous and consistent adherence to the simple rules of diligence in business, and an honorable ambition. The support he has commanded from the public in his labors, and the confidence which all classes repose in his judgment and his motives, are founded upon the equipoise of character and catholicity of sympathies which make the true man and valuable citizen.

He was born in Chambers County, Alabama, June 22, 1850, the son of Jesse S. and Henrietta E. (Collins) Thompson. Jesse S. Thompson was a contractor and builder. The son attended private school until the age of thirteen years, when he became an apprentice to his father to learn the building trade. His progressive career then began, for, at the age of eighteen, we find him foreman of his father's considerable business. At his father's death four years later, which occurred in Birmingham, he moved to Birmingham, in 1871, with his father's family, and after his death in July, 1872, he was employed by other contractors and builders in the same capacity.

In 1873 he formed a copartnership with his brother, B. A. Thompson, in the building business. After eighteen months this firm dissolved, and Thomas C. Thompson continued in the same line on his own account. In 1879 he took into partnership, to enter the hardware business, and building and contracting, Mr. J. B. Francis, the firm being styled T. C. Thompson & Co. Mr. Thompson gave his personal attention to the business, and has put up some of the handsomest buildings in the city, all of which have given the best of satisfaction. In March, 1886, W. A. Chenoweth was admitted to the copartnership, and the firm name now is Thompson, Francis & Chenoweth.

He is now president of the Thompson Brick Company, the largest company of the kind in the city; also, a stockholder and director in the Enterprise Manufacturing Company, the largest wood-working company in Alabama; stockholder and director in the Consolidated Street Railroad Company, of Birmingham, and superintendent and general manager of the Jefferson Building and Improvement Company, of Birmingham.

October 11, 1883, Mr. Thompson married Miss Julia, daughter of George Seaman. His beautiful city residence, on the cottage style, is noted as the abode of a delightful hospitality. In every good work Mr. and Mrs. Thompson are among the most liberal contributors, and no personal influence in Birmingham society is more healthful than theirs.

Mr. Thompson is an active vestryman of the Episcopal Church; is a member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, and of the Knights of Pythias. He has been Worthy Chief of the Lodge of Grand Templars, and also its State Deputy.

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson lost their only child.

Ina Thompson Bio
for MP Librar Ground breaking

On May 31, 1882 a little girl was born in Birmingham, Alabama. It is safe to say that as joyous and proud as her family probably was at this occasion no one could have predicted the impact this birth would have on the small community of Moss Point, Mississippi over 120 years later.

Maggie Ina Thompson moved with her family to Moss Point as a young girl. Records show that the family joined the Moss Point Methodist Church in 1895 and both children, Ina and Jesse, remained active and supportive members all of their lives.

As adults, Ina and Jesse went on to became merchants in the relatively new City of Moss Point, incorporated in 1901. They opened a shoe store called The Toggery and were one of many merchants around the world that sent items to the Dionne Quintuplets, five pairs of tiny, shiny new Poll Parrot shoes. That gift might seem odd to those who have heard of Miss Ina's extremely frugal ways. She was known, for example, to turn off household appliances, such as refrigerators, and only use them when SHE determined they were needed. Even if this meant borrowing space in a neighbor's refrigerator for a while. There is also a story of her literally jerking her brother out of the barber's chair while the barber held the scissors in mid-air because she thought it wasteful to get a haircut before she deemed it really necessary.

But as frugal as she was in everyday expenditures she was equally generous with missions and causes that she cared for deeply. She supported various colleges and church missions. She took great enjoyment in plants and flowers and made beautiful arrangements. And, she was the social correspondent for the local paper for many years. Miss Thompson was no sour old maid, but a successful businesswoman of much spirit and character and thankfully, much foresight.

Just three years before her death she started the M. Ina Thompson Foundation with a relatively modest investment. She also personally named the original board members and oversaw the development of the bylaws for the foundation. In 1970 the Foundation was able to make their first distribution giving $811.00 to chosen organizations. In accordance with the bylaws the board could distribute funds from the interest and dividends only so amounts distributed varied from year to year.

At her death in 1972 a bequest of $235,300 was added to the initial $25,730, making the total contribution to the Foundation of $261,030. Over the next 30 years, a wide array of organizations benefited from the Foundation including churches, colleges, foreign missions, public broadcasting, arts associations, treatment centers, orphanages, food pantries, music associations, dance ensembles, the Red Cross, United Way, and a host of other worthy organizations. With the addition of Dr. Karl Horn to the Foundation board in 1990, the Friends of the Moss Point Library was added to this list.

A student of finance would do well to study the management of this foundation. It would make an excellent case study in how to maintain a balance between fixed income and growth so as to achieve a steady cash flow and allow distributions. From 1969 through 2002 the Foundation distributed over $742,171 to various charitable organizations. By November of 2002 deaths had decimated the board so that only 3 members remained, and only one of them was from the original board appointed by Miss Thompson. The directors elected to dissolve the foundation and donate the corpus to the City of Moss Point for purposes of construction of a new public library for that community. This final donation of $506,612 brings the total of funds distributed over the 30 years of existence to $1,248,783,

Not bad for a small businesses owner born well over a century earlier. This story says a lot about what one person can do to impact a community, what women can do in the business world, and what a group can accomplish when they have integrity, intelligence, and a little imagination.

What the library staff and community have to do now is live up the legacy left us and make the new Ina Thompson Moss Point Library the best it can be. And, maybe even turn off the refrigerator if it is ever empty!

Maggie Ina Thompson

On May 31, 1882, a little girl was born in Birminghan, Alabama. It is safe to say that as joyous and proud as her family probably was at this occasion, no one could have predicted the impact this birth would have on the small community of Moss Point, Mississippi, over one hundred and twenty years later.

Dr. Walter R. Thompson and wife Mary moved to Moss Point in 1895 with son, Jesse, and daughter, Maggie Ina. Records show that the family joined the Moss Point Methodist Church in 1895 and they remained active members all their lives. Dr. Thompson practiced medicine in Moss Point until the latter part of the 1920's, when he resigned due to ill health. On March 29, 1926, Dr. and Mrs. Thompson celebrated their golden wedding anniversary in Moss Point. At this time Mary E., in spite of her advanced years, was organist at the church.

As adults, Ina and Jesse became merchants in the relatively new city of Moss Point, incorporated in 1901. They opened a clothing and shoe store called "The Toggery" and were one of many merchants around the world that sent items to the Dionne Quintuplets, five pairs of tiny, shiny new Poll Parrot shoes. As frugal as she was in everyday expenditures, she was equally generous with causes that she believed in. She supported various colleges and church missions. Ina enjoyed horticulture and was known for making beautiful flower arrangements. In addition to being a successful businesswoman, she was the social correspondent for the Moss Point Advertiser for several years. Besides having a generous spirit and strong character, she thankfully had much foresight.

Just three years before her death in 1972, she started the M. Ina Thompson Foundation with a relatively modest investment. In 1970, the Foundation was able to make its first distribution donating about eight hundred dollars to chosen organizations. wife, Elizabeth Carrol, Sarah Cumbest and Margaret Cumbest for and in consideration of the sum of sixteen hundred dollrs to us paid by John A. Griffin, Jacob W. Griffin, Erasmus F. Griffin and Lorenzo N. Dantzler for a certain tract or parcel of land.

Bounded by a line commencing at a certain cypress tree on Cumbest's Lake freshly marked by a crop thus X cut with an axe, thence running West eight chains and ninety links, thence south nineteen degrees west eleven chains and seventy five links, thence south five degrees, East fourty four chains and fourty links, thence East about ten chains and forty five links to the western boundary of land belonging Ellis Fairbanks and Charles Ely, thence in a Northerly direction along the western boundary of said land of said Fairbanks and Ely to said Cumbest's Lake, thence along the western booundary of said Lake to the beginning point.

These heirs either signed or made the mark X in the presents of John Hughes, J.P. dated sixteenth day of May AD One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty Six. This deed was filed in the office of Cadmus H. Alley, Clerk of the Probate Court in Jackson Co. Mississippi in Book B page 213-14-15.

From this deed one can see how the Griffins and Dantzlers became the land owners of the old Simon Cumbest land grant. There was three recorded pages, but I only have one page.

The heirs of John Cumbest kept this land thirty years after his death. His widow and children all lived at Cumbest Bluff with the exception of a daughter, Mary Myers. It is believed that Mary and her husband William Myers lived on and raised their family on this land. One thing for sure, someone paid the taxes all those years or it would have surely been sold and bought in a tax sale.

Simon and Elizabeth had six known children. All was born FL.

1. Elizabeth Cumbest, b. 1790 FL.
2. John Henry Cumbest, b. 1792 FL. progenitor of the Cumbest's in Jackson Co..
3. Sarah Cumbest, b. 1795 FL.
4. Catherine Cumbest, b. 1797 FL.
5. Jethroe Cumbest, b. 1799 d. c. 1824
6. Simeon Antoine Cumbest, b. 1804 FL. d. 7 Nov. 1883 in Nevada Co. CA. at the residence at Mrs. Lewis Horten's. Was this a daughter? The Cumbest's in CA. descend from James of GA.

ELIZABETH CUMBEST
DAUGHTER OF SIMON

Elizabeth Cumbest was the first child born to Simon and Elizabeth Cumbest. According to Catherine Graham Jones Bible she was born in 1790 FL. Territory and died 22 Oct. 1865 Jackson Co. MS. She married 1810 in New Orleans, LA. to William Graham. One might wonder why she married in New Orleans. Remember that Simon took oath to Spain and the family was Catholic. Old records were recorded at the Saint Louis Cathedral in New Orleans.

Elizabeth m. (2) John Hughes, 4 Oct. 1838. He was born 1794 in England and died before 1850. Elizabeth and her two husbands are buried in Johnson Cemetery in Wade. William and Elizabeth had ten children, if there were more they were not listed in the Bible. All of the known children will be listed.

AUTOBIOGRAPHY OF ROBERT HARVEY THOMPSON

I was born on the 25th of August, 1847, on a typical southern slave plantation situated in the southwestern part of Copiah county, Mississippi. Of my ancestors I know only what is hereinafter stated. My paternal grandfather, Jesse Thompson, was born in Cork, Ireland; the exact date of his birth is unknown to me but it is believed to have been during the American Revolutionary War. His father, my paternal great-grandfather, came to this country just after the American colonies had gained their independence, and settled in what is now Hancock county, Georgia. He brought my grandfather with him when the child was of tender year. My grandfather spent his boyhood in Georgia. When he approached or had just reached manhood he married Miss Margaret (in youth commonly called Peggy) Harvey, who belonged to a distinguished and cultured Georgia family. Shortly after their marriage my paternal grandfather and grandmother removed to the Mississippi Territory; their removal is believed to have been made in 1810, and they first settled near the confluence of the Tombigbee and Alabama rivers, in that part of the territory now in the state of Alabama.

A short period of time after my grandparents of whom I write had located in the Territory, a fort, called "Fort Mims," was erected near their home for the protection of the white people and their slaves living within reasonable distances of the fort, from injury and death apprehended at the hands of the Indians. My grandparents took refuge in the fort and one of my aunts, a sister of my father, several years his senior, was born in the fort. My grandfather was evidently a man of keen perceptive faculties. He reached the conclusion that the fort was badly managed and three days before it was captured by the Indians and a great number of men, women and children massacred by them, he, with his family, left the fort, his statement being that he preferred to risk the safety of himself and his family "in the open" meaning in the forest. History verifies his judgment and good sense; a subsequent investigation determined that the capture of the fort by the Indians was attributable alone to mismanagement by the officers commanding it.

Shortly after the Creek Indian War my paternal grandfather with his family removed to what is now Greene county, Mississippi. While so residing he was, by the legislature of the Territory (Act of December 9, 1811, Digest of Statutes of Mississippi Territory, 1816 p. 105) appointed one of five commissioners to locate the county site of Greene county; they located it at Leakesville and the county site has remained there to this time.

Thereafter my paternal grandfather, Jesse Thompson, removed to Marion county and by an act of the Territorial legislature, of date December 24, 1814, he was appointed one of five commissioners (Digest of Statutes, Mississippi Territory, 1816, p. 113) to locate the county site of Marion county; the commissioners located the same at Columbia, now the county site.

My grandfather remained a resident citizen of Marion county until after the Doaks Stand Indian Treaty was entered into; this, I think was in 1820, and by it the United States acquired title to a large tract of land, constituting a large part of this state. Hinds county was created by the statute of date February 12, 1821, and it originally included all of the original Yazoo county, all of Madison, the present Hinds, all of Rankin, Simpson, and Copiah counties, and about one third of Lincoln county. Almost at once after the creation of Hinds county my paternal grandfather removed from Marion county to the then new county of Hinds settling in that part of it now in Copiah county. He located near Georgetown on Pearl river. In 1823, January 24th of that year, Copiah County was created, embracing all of Simpson and a large part of Lincoln counties.

My grandfather while a resident of Marion county, became a soldier of the United States army; he belonged to the regiment of Mississippi troops of which Colonel Nixon was the commander and he participated in the battle of New Orleans.

The county site of Copiah county as at first created, was located at a place called "Coors Springs," quite cenregiment, under Capt. Gholston, being engaged in the fights at Tazewell, Murfreesboro, Chickamauga, Missionary Ridge and then going on detail duty. In 1853 he married Martha, daughter of Berry M. and Elizabeth (Vaughn) David. Six children have been born to this union, who are now living: David, William, James O., Lorena, S. P. and Clinton. The mother was born in 1834. They are both members of the Baptist church and Mr. Power has long belonged to the masonic fraternity. He has served as bailiff for a number of years, and is well known throughout the county.

W. W. SCOTT. Among the leading farmers of Madison county is W. W. Scott, of Danielsville. He was born in Madison county in 1820, and is the son of John and Jane (Milligan) Scott. John Scott was born in North Carolina, of which state his parents were natives, and came to Georgia at an early day, settling in Madison county, where he farmed and engaged in trading with great pecuniary success. He left his plow to serve in the second war with Great Britain, and a few years after his return was elected to the office of sheriff of Madison county. He was re-elected a number of terms and in that day was the leading man of the county. He married a daughter of Andrew and Linie (Cloghorn) Milligan. Mr. Milligan was a native of Virginia and served throughout the revolutionary war as a private, and won fame for his fearless courage in several battles. The early life of W. W. Scott was that of the usual farmer boy, and when fifteen years of age he followed in the footsteps of his ancestors and shouldered a musket and went out and fought the Cherokee Indians in the war of 1831. In 1841 he was married to Mary J. Daniel, a daughter of James Daniel a well-to-do farmer of Madison county. Mrs. Scott was born in 1825 and her demise occurred in 1856. She was a noble Christian woman, belonging to the Presbyterian church, and a loving wife and mother. By this marriage the following living children were born: Thomas J., Elizabeth F., John C., James D. and Mary. In 1860 Mr. Scott was married to Sarah Davenport, who was born in Wilkes county and died in 1886 at an advanced age. Mr. Scott's third marriage was to Sarah, daughter of John and Nancy (Stanton) Dixon. She was born in Elbert county in 1842. Mr. Dixon was a native of and died in Elbert county and was a prosperous farmer. Mrs. Scott is a member of the M. E. church, while her husband is of the Presbyterian faith and a lifelong member of the masonic order. Mr. Scott has always taken an interest in politics, though never aspiring to office, and in 1877 was a representative of his county in the constitutional convention. Mr. Scott, like so many other farmers of the south after the war, found himself ruined, but with indomitable energy went to work and soon recovered his losses and added greatly to them, having a fine farm of 4,000 acres at the present time. Mr. Scott served in the Confederate army in the late war, first as private, then as captain, elected by the men, and was afterward promoted to the rank of major of his regiment.

DR. B. M. THOMPSON, a prominent physician of Madison county, Ga., whose home is at Thompson's Mills, near Five Forks, is a native of the county, a son of William and Mary (Tilman) Thompson, and was born in 1821. His paternal great-grandparents were natives, respectively, of Ireland and Scotland, and on coming to this country settled in Pennsylvania. His paternal grandparents were Alexander and Mary (Hodge) Thompson. He was born in Pennsylvania, was a soldier during the revolutionary war, migrated to North Carolina and afterward to Georgia. Dr. Thompson's father was born in Burke county, N. C., and came to Georgia in 1790 with his parents, who settled in Wilkes (now Oglethorpe) county. The mother of Dr. B. M. Thompson was a daughter of William and Mary (Farrow) Tilman. He came from South Carolina and located in Georgia soon after the revolutionary war, and settled in Burke county, where he reared his family. He afterward moved to Madison county, where he died. Dr. Thompson was reared on a farm, and in 1850 married Amanda J. Carithers, daughter of William C. and Mary (Griffith) Carithers. Her father was a South Carolinian and moved to Georgia and lived in Madison county till his death. They have two children: William H. and Mary B. The mother was born in 1832 and died in 1875. She was a woman much loved and was a sincere Christian lady. Dr. Thompson began reading medicine in 1843 under Dr. Culbertson and has practiced for fifty years. He first attended the Jefferson Medical college, Philadelphia, in 1844-5, and was then graduated from the Atlanta Medical college in 1856. The doctor enjoys an extended reputation for professional skill and has a very large practice. He owns about 1,900 acres of choice land near Five Forks, and a big mill on South river. He is the owner of a mill built by his grandfather in 1790, it being the first mill erected in Madison county.

J. F. WHITE. The White family and its wide connections in Georgia descend from an old Virginia family that came to Georgia about the beginning of the present century. The great-grandfather of the present generation was Stephen H. White, who moved to Georgia with his parents when a boy. He was born in Virginia, was married to Lucy White and became a wealthy planter and large slave owner. His son, Isaiah M. White, married Sarah A. O'Kelley, and of this union was born J. F. White, whose memoir is here given. Isaiah White was a representative man of his time and a brave soldier in the Indian war of 1836 and the civil war. His wife was a daughter of James and Dicey (Stamfer) O'Kelley. Mr. O'Kelley was a native of Virginia, and moving to Georgia at an early day lived and died in Oglethorpe county. The great-grandfather on Mr. White's paternal grandmother's side was Page White, a native of Virginia and one of the prominent and wealthy planters of Georgia at the close of the last century. Mr. J. F. White was reared on the farm and received only a meager early education. He married Lucy, daughter of O. N. and Nancy (Smith) White, the father being a native of Georgia, a successful farmer and brave soldier in the late war. Mrs. White was born in Madison county, and a few years after marriage died, leaving three children: Lizzie, Nancy, and Stephen P. In 1892 Mr. White was married to Georgia Tucker, daughter of William A. and Mary (Johnston) Roysten. The latter was a native of Franklin county, and was a successful farmer and merchant. They have one living child—Paul. Mrs. White was born in Franklin county, was a member of the Methodist church and a charitable woman. Mr. White's life has been spent on the farm, and his industry has been rewarded by the possession of a magnificent estate of 1,400 acres of land near Danielsville. He is a citizen respected by the community in which he lives and a man whose word is good as a bond.

THE THOMPSON HOUSE

The Thompson house in Setauket, birthplace of Benjamin F. Thompson (number 355 p-34), Long Island historian, belonged in the Thompson family about 178 yrs, finally going out of their possession in 1887. It is now owned by the Stony Brook Community Fund & has been restored for its historic value. It now houses the Society for the Preservation of Long Island Antiquities. The main part of the house was built between 1700 & 1720. Throughout the house there are wooden pegs & hand-wrought nails. The house contains, a lean-to type kitchen, (with the hardware on the cupboard door being the original), a Borning room (a room used for anyone who was giving birth, ill or dying, as it was always warm from the kitchen), the Parlor, which has a lovely wide-boarded floor, a central beam running the length of the room & a fireplace. The fireplace is a walk in type as is that in the Keeping Room. There is a master bedroom, small bedroom, large attic, with old riven oak clapboards, a lean-to attic and an office wing. The latter was a separate building, which was added to the main house before 1820. (to be cont'd)

ENGLISH RECORDS

by Mr John D. Morrell

The following are copied from The Register of Christ Church, Newgate, 1538-1754, edited by Willoughby A. Littledale (London: Mitchell & Hughes, the Wardour Press, 1895). (The Publications of the Harleian Society, registers. Vol 21 for the year 1895).

At the end of the reign of Henry VIII the parish church of Christ Church was formed using Grey-Friars Church. It united the old parishes of St Nicholas & St Ewin & that part of St Sepulchre's parish that was within the Newgate (& the Church of St Bartholomew in West Smithfield?). The church burned in 1666 in the great fire. The later church, 1687-1704, was the work of Sir Christopher Wren, "who utilized some of the marble pavement in the old church for the floor of the present chancel." The parish of St Leonard's Foster Lane was united to Christ Church after the fire. No register of St. Leonard's are known to esist.

CHrist Church burned in 1940. St Ewin (demolished 16th century) was its real predecessor. St Ewin parish was then united with St Nicholas Shambles and part of Sepulchre's to form the then new parish of Christ Church (or Christchurch). St Ewin also known as St Owen or Audoen may have taken its name from St Ouen, Archbishop of Rouen in 680. The church of St Nicholas Shambles was demolished 1548. Shambles was a locality (Newgate St.), taking its name from butchers having been in area.

NOTE: Alexander Thompson of Cambridge & Dudley, Mass. & Newport, R.I. married-1st Martha Fessenden, daughter of John & Mary (Nowell) Fessenden of Cambridge, Mass. on or about March 24, 1744 (intention). They had twelve children. Alexander was a kinsmen of John Thompson Jr of Dudley, Mass. & Samuel Thompson of Walpole, Mass. according to the will of John Thompson Jr, who died unmarried on the Crown Point expedition, and left his estate to his relatives. THIS IS A GOOD SAMPLE OF WHAT CAN BE UNCOVERED ABOUT AN ANCESTOR THROUGH A FAMILY ASSOCIATION. Many persons have worked on this above problem through the years, but because they worked alone and in one area never thought to search records of ajoining States. You see Vol 41 of the above publication was published in 1910, many years before most of the persons working on this family ever started their research. We hope to help members of our association descended from this family by checking records on the new locations. We hope this will be another break through to the ancestry of an immigrant to America.

THE STORY OF SURNAMES by L.G. Pine, Charles E. Tuttle Co., Inc., Rutland, Vermont, (Jan 15, 1967) $4.75 - One of the current books of Mr Pine, noted English author of books on Heraldry & Genealogy. This book holds interest for everybody as we all have a surname. He tells the meaning, origin & history behind surnames in a very interesting & sometimes amusing trip back through time. His aim is to show interested students of history & genealogy how to evaluate for himself by using several hundred examples of how people came by their surname. He shows the four basic classes into which all surnames fall, and explains at length how to decide under which class your surname was devived. This is a must book for the study of surnames. Browsing thru the many surnames cited, we noted a few that will hold interest to our members, such as, Brown; Drinkwater; Gibson; Harrison; Lightfoot; Montgomery; Moon; Olivier; Peer; Pettit; Randall; Smith; Squire; Tailor; Thompson; Williams, Younger & hundreds of others. The book contains 141 pages, plus a subject index & an index to surnames.

THE STORY OF HERALDRY by L.G. Pine, Charles E. Tuttle Co., Inc., Rutland, Vermont, (Jan 15, 1967) - This book will answer the many questions we all have about Heraldry. Mr Pine includes chapters on "The Origin of Arms", who granted them, the royal control of them, the Rolls of Arms, The Visitations, the romantic revival & its effects on heraldry, heraldric systems outside England, heraldry of Ireland, Scotland & the American College of Arms, as will as Heraldry today, with a bibliography of what to read & a Glossary of heraldic terms. The book is indexed. Price is $4.75 For those who may not be fimular with Mr Pines work, I might add that he is one of the foremost writers of English genealogy, heraldry & history. We have many of his books in our library. He writes with an ease of knowing fully his subject. He makes the reader see the point of his subject in small compact, well writen & easy to read text. Among his other writings are included, American Origins, a book giving genealogical source material for many of the lesser known countries of Europe & other places, Heraldry & Genealogy, a teach yourself book, & Heraldry, Ancestry & Titles, being a book of questions most asked, with answers.

Heads of Families, 1830 Census of Missouri by Beverly M. Stercula, Genealogems publications, 212 S. Derek Dr, Fullerton, Calif., 92631, (May 15, 1966) $7.50 mimeographed 143 8½ X 11 - a chronological list of all heads of families listed in the then 32 counties of Missouri for the year 1830. The book was designed to show who was living next to who, so that the researcer can easily find other relations in the neighborhood. The book contains 143 pages, 3 columns wide of the list & a 45 page index.

The Rogue Velley Genealogical Society Quarterly, P.O. Box 369, Ashland, Oregon, 97520 membership $3.00 per yr (Spring 1967 issue) 19 pages - Another Society type publication, much of the space is taken up with officers & their opinions, particularly the book review editor who praises that horrible atlas most of us bought & had to throw or give away & then turns around & makes dirty digs at the 4th edition of the Handy Book for Genealogists, which is the one most generally us ed references of its kind, I might add based on material supplied by others, hense a few errors. There are queries, a bible record, several pages of V.R. of Jackson Co. & a list of members.

HOW TO OBTAIN A COPY OF A PENSION APPLICATION - you must have form NAR 288 from the National Archives to send for a pension record. To receive this form write: General Services Administration, National Archives & Records Service, Washington, D.C. 20408. After you have the form fill it out as complete as possible, place it together with &1.00 and send to the above address. It will take from 3 to 6 weeks to get the record. The best way to insure receiving a needed record is to first check an index to the various pension lists & find the pension number. The National Archives will attempt to identify any needed pension application they can, but often if you are able to check the indexes yourself you will be able to note the correct record where a clerk may not. In our library we have the complete printed list of all Revolutionary War pensioners of all surnames. At the local L.D.S. library in Santa Monica, Calif. on film, are all the remaining pension lists on file in the National Archives. These however do not include all the bounty land warrent indexes. Your editor is available to copy material of this kind for a small fee. The fee would depend on the amount of rolls to be consulted & the number of entries to be copied. Just recently I had some extra time while in Santa Monica & consulted the pension index for the civil war for Thompson soldiers beginning with the letter A., and found many Albert Thompsons (trying to find a lead for our member Art Thompson), and further down the list (which is a series of index cards as found at the National Archives) I found Akin Thompson Pa., with widow Marharet H. Thompson. He filed his Invalid pension May 28, 1891, application number 1029,694, certificate number 824,768; widows application number 1639,624, certificate A-5-21-29, filed April 5, 1929 (of interest to Katrina McGill). Still browsing I found an unexpected nugget, in the pension of Alonzo John Thompson (an odd great uncel of my own) & his widow Clara E. Thompson. Alonzo Thompson was a very wealthy man, hence I did not check this material for him. I mention this to show that anyone of your ancestors may have received a pension (that is after our federal government was established), don't overlook the value of this material.

6715-ANCESTRY WANTED of Priscilla Thompson, wife of Lemuel Sturtevant, mentioned on page 23, Jan 1967 of the Thompson Family Magazine. Patricia Schoppmann, 2680 Sherman Lane, Carson City, Nevada 89701

6716-ANCESTRY & FAMILY DATA NEEDED on Robert Thompson of New Canaan, Conn. & Elizabeth, his wife who had a son Jonathan bapt-May 23, 1762 at St John's Episcopal Church, Stamford, Conn.. This Jonathan Thompson is beleived to be the same John (Jonathan) Thompson, Revolutionary War pensioner listed on p-20 Jan. 1967 of the Thompson Family Magazine. Mrs Dorothy Pruett, 916 East Lyon St., Milwaukee, Wisconsin, 53202

ADDITION TO 1966 MEMBERSHIP ROSTER p-9 (M-1) JOHN THOMPSON, b-in N. Ireland; d-1846 in Mercer Co., Pa.; married Sarah Cochran (b-Pa.), had a daughter Elizabeth Thompson who married William Robinson & died in 1909 in Pa., whose death certificate provided the above additions.

GENERAL JOHN THOMPSON b-Mifflin Co., Pa. in Feb 1783-d-March 5, 1832, son of Moses Thompson (born in Mifflin Co., the son of a Scotch-Irish immigrant, who came to America about 1745, from Armagh, No. Ireland & settled near Milroy, in what was then an almost unbroken wilderness). Moses Thompson constructed a stone house at the western end of Milroy in 1804, which was known as "Thompson's Tavern" for a long time afterwards. John then received the old homestead, where he & his family lived until 1809, when he removed his family to a farm near the old Presby. Church on the highway from Bellefonte to Huntingdon. They first lived in a log cabin, later he built a large substantial stone house near the highway. They were still living here when he died. He was appointed Justice of the Peace by Governor Simon Snyder in 1811 & served until his death. In 1829 he was elected Maj. Gen. of militia and this is where he received the title. He married Elizabeth McFarlane of Jacks Creek (now called Honey Creek) and by her had 7 children: Matthew;Nancy mar-William Cooper); Moses; Mary mar-George Jack Esq. of Boalsburg; James; John; & William. Hist. of Centre & Clinton Co's, Pa. by John Blair Linn (1883) p-227 In the same source p-277 is a biography of Moses Thompson, son of Gen. John. On p-251 is a biography that lists Nancy Thompson, only daughter of Moses Thompson of Mifflin Co., by his second wife. She married Foster Miliken & had a son James-b-Mifflin Co. July 23, 1826, who lived in Centre Co. at Bellefonte.

FOR ALL MEMBERS OF THE ASSOCIATION & FRIENDS that are thinking about meeting us in Salt Lake City the week of May 14th....PLEASE let us know of your interest, even if you are not sure you can make it. In case we have to cancel the meeting for some unforeseen reason, we would not want someone expecting us, when we couldn't make it.

PREFACE

THE BETHEL-THOMPSON FAMILY ASSOCIATION IS GREATLY INDEBTED TO THE LATE REV. GEORGE HOUSTON THOMPSON FOR THE ORIGINAL COLLECTION OF THOMPSON FAMILY DATA. THE GENEALOGICAL DATA WAS GATHERED OVER MANY YEARS, CAREFULLY SOUGHT OUT AND SUBSTANTIATED. MUCH OF REV. THOMPSON'S INFORMATION CAME FROM HIS FATHER, ROBERT KING THOMPSON, SON OF RANSOM AND GRANDSON OF JOSEPH THOMPSON, THE REVOLUTIONARY WAR PATRIOT, OF SOUTH CAROLINA. REV. THOMPSON WAS ASSISTED BY A DAUGHTER, MRS. MAGGIE THOMPSON RITTENHOUSE OF MONTGOMERY, ALABAMA, WHO MADE TRIPS WITH HIM TO COLLECT DATA.

THE PRESENT-DAY COMPILER WAS GRANTED PERMISSION BY ANOTHER DAUGHTER, MRS. ERSKINE THOMPSON CAMERON OF HATTIESBURG, MISSISSIPPI, TO COPY REV. THOMPSON'S ORIGINAL JOURNAL. A FULL DAY WAS SPENT IN HER HOME, COPYING. THE COMPILER, SINCE THAT TIME HAS, WITH THE HELP OF MANY OTHERS, HAS ENDEAVORED TO BRING THE JOURNAL UP-TO-DATE TO THE PRESENT GENERATION. COMPLETION OF THIS THOMPSON GENEALOGICAL JOURNAL MAY BE CONSIDERED A MEMORIAL TO REV. THOMPSON, A DEVOUT MAN OF GOD WHO HAD A DEEP LOVE FOR HIS MAKER, HIS FAMILY AND HIS COUNTRY.

IT IS IMPOSSIBLE TO MENTION ALL WHO HAVE CONTRIBUTED TO THIS VOLUME. THEY HAVE THIS WRITER'S APPRECIATION. THERE ARE SOME, HOWEVER, WHO HAVE MADE SPECIAL CONTRIBUTIONS TOWARD THE COMPLETION OF THIS FAMILY HISTORY. A SPECIAL "THANK YOU" GOES TO MY AUNT, GERTRUDE BASS SMITH (MRS. B. FRANK) OF HATTIESBURG, MISSISSIPPI WHO MADE ARRANGEMENTS FOR ME TO VISIT IN MRS. CAMERON'S HOME AND COPY THE JOURNAL, AND FOR OTHER COURTESIES. SINCERE APPRECIATION IS EXPRESSED TO THE BETHEL-THOMPSON ASSOCIATION WHICH AUTHORIZED THE PUBLISHING OF THE MATERIAL, AND TO JERRY TAYLOR JOHNSTON OF BRANDON, MISSISSIPPI, THE IMMEDIATE PAST CHAIRMAN OF THE ASSOCIATION; TO MRS. KATIE BROWN MCNEILL, SECRETARY OF THE ASSOCIATION; TO MRS. NEVA FORTENBERRY THOMPSON (KIRBY) FOR MUCH ENCOURAGEMENT AND SUPPORT FROM THE BEGINNING; TO CAROLYN THOMPSON GANT (MRS. HENRY) OF CANTON, MISSISSIPPI; THE LATE JACK D. HUNNICUTT OF TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA FOR CONTRIBUTING CERTAIN DOCUMENTS; TO JOE T. WHALEN OF ASHLAND, OREGON; TO MRS. WALLACE A BROWN OF FLORIDA; TO MY MOTHER, MATTIE BASS CALDWELL (MRS. BRICE L.) WHO ESTABLISHED THE REVOLUTIONARY WAR SERVICE OF JOSEPH THOMPSON BY SUBMITTING IT TO THE NSDAR; TO MY LITTLE GRANDMOTHER, MARY BALROSAH THOMPSON BASS (MRS. PHILLIP B. SR.) WHO TOLD ME MUCH THOMPSON FOLKLORE AND SANG TO ME DELIGHTFUL TUNES OF HER YOUNG DAYS; TO TREBBIE PUCKETT KECK (MRS. HERBERT L.) FOR HER SPECIAL ASSISTANCE; AND TO MY HUSBAND, BRUCE HOWLAND NICHOLSON WHO PATIENTLY INDULGED ME IN THIS GENEALOGICAL VENTURE. THANK YOU ALL.

THE HISTORIES

OF - BETHEL METHODIST CHURCH 1882-1982

A CENTURY AGO, IN JANUARY 1882, A CHURCH'S FOUNDATION WAS LAID - BETHEL, LOCATED IN LAWRENCE COUNTY, MISSISSIPPI NEAR NEWHEBRON.

THE SITE, ENCOMPASSING SOME FOUR ACRES, HAD BEEN DONATED BY ROBERT KING THOMPSON, SON OF RANSOM THOMPSON AND GRANDSON OF JOSEPH THOMPSON, REVOLUTIONARY WAR PATRIOT OF SOUTH CAROLINA. ROBERT KING THOMPSON AND HIS BROTHERS DUDLEY H. AND ZACHARIAH TALIAFERRO THOMPSON HAD SEEN THE NEED OF A CHURCH NEARER THEIR HOMES, SILVER CREEK BEING THE CLOSEST METHODIST CHURCH.

THE STORY IS TOLD THAT "UNCLE GEORGE"AS A TEENAGER, (GEORGE HOUSTON THOMPSON) MADE DAILY TRIPS TO SMITH'S MILL, ONE MILE SOUTH OF SILVER CREEK TO GET LUMBER. JOHN CROSBY, A CARPENTER, SUPERVISED THE WORK ON THE CHURCH BUILDING. A MR. SINCLAIR BUILT THE PEWS. WILLIS SPEIGHTS FURNISHED THE "BOARDS". LABOR WAS DONATED BY ALL WHO COULD HELP. THE FACT THAT BETHEL'S FIRST ROOM WAS NOT REPLACED UNTIL 1947 ATTESTS TO THE WORTHINESS OF THE MATERIALS AND WORKMANSHIP THAT WENT INTO THE BUILDING.

IN THE BEGINNING, THE CHURCH WAS KNOWN AS"BETHEL METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH, SOUTH". ITS FIRST REGISTER HAS BEEN PRESERVED. WRITTEN IN THE REGISTER IS THIS INSCRIPTION:

> "BETHEL CHURCH WAS ORGANIZED SEPT 12TH 1882 BY REV. B.S. RAYNER, PASTOR IN CHARGE MT.CARMEL CIRCUIT, WITH 39 MEMBERS OF WHICH JNO CROSBY WAS CHOSEN SECTY, Z.T.THOMPSON,JR.,STEWARD, Z.T.THOMPSON,SR. CLASS LEADER."

IN THE OLD DAYS, THE "SR." AND "JR." FOLLOWING A MAN'S NAME DID NOT ALWAYS INDICATE FATHER AND SON RELATIONSHIP AS IT DOES IN THE 20TH CENTURY. GENERALLY, IT WAS USED SIMPLY TO DISTINGUISH BETWEEN AN OLDER AND YOUNGER MAN OF THE SAME NAME (OR USING THE SAME INITIALS). IT APPEARS THEREFORE THAT Z.T.THOMPSON,JR. WAS ZACHARY TAYLOR THOMPSON, SON OF ROBERT KING THOMPSON AND NEPHEW OF Z.T. THOMPSON,SR.

BETHEL'S REGISTER LISTS THE MEMBERS RECEIVED ON THAT DAY OR ORGANIZATION SEPTEMBER 12, 1882 BY REV. RAYNER. THERE WERE SEVEN BAPTISMS ON THAT DAY!

SERVICES CONTINUED YEAR AFTER YEAR AT BETHEL WITH THE LAST REGULAR ONE BEING HELD IN 1942. WHAT WAS TO BE BETHEL'S FATE? IT HAD BEEN DECIDED BY THE MISSISSIPPI METHODIST CONFERENCE THAT THE CHUROH SHOULD DISBAND AND MEMBERS TRANSFER TO OTHER CHURCHES. WHAT OF THE QUAINT LITTLE CEMETERY AT THE REAR OF THE CHURCH WHERE MANY OF THOMPSON KIN WERE BURIED?

Misses Winnie and Mary Neil (Tiss) Thompson asked their Uncle George for help. Through his influence as a respected minister of the Mississippi Methodist Conference, Rev. George H. Thompson was able to get the closing plan dropped. Bethel was saved and services continued for a time.

Some four years later Bethel was again threatened with closing. Unknown tothe other members, Winnie and Tiss Thompson agreed to pay Bethel's part of the circuit pastor's salary, to keep the church in good repair and the cemetery tended. Bethel was once again saved! Little did they know it was only temporary.

It was in the early 1960's, the sisters' brother James Taylor Thompson and his wife Sybil, retired and returned to NewHebron, Mississippi. They heard more closure rumblings. Would this mean the finale of Bethel's service? Would strange and disrespectful feet trod those sacred grounds?

With his usual direct approach, James Taylor Thompson, with his nephew Jerry Taylor Johnston, a Brandon, Mississippi attorney, negotiated with the Methodist hierarchy. In July 1964, "Freedom" was Bethel's! The Mississippi Methodist Conference sold the church and grounds to James Taylor Thompson. Bethel was in good Thompson hands. The property had gone full circle - back to descendants of the donor.

To ensure Bethel's future, Jim Taylor Thompson established the Bethel-Thompson Trust Fund which provides perpetual care for church, cemetery and grounds. Since that time, the property has been conveyed to the Bethel-Thompson Corporation.

In recent years, Bethel has had nothing but tender loving care. The building has been refurbished; wired for electricity, making possible air conditioning, the playing of the organ; roof replaced; painting inside and out; inside rest room for convenience of senior members added; and the outside "necessary houses" renovated and improved. In 1976, Bethel Church was placed on the Lawrence County, Mississippi Bicentennial List of Historic Places. It has been the "home" of the Bethel-Thompson reunions since 1925.

Mere words can never express the value of the contribution made to Bethel by Winnie, Tiss, Jim Taylor and Sybil Thompson ... nor express the appreciation of the Bethel-Thompson Family Association.

Bethel Church is over a hundred years old. It was built on the firm foundation of Faith in Christ - the "Solid Rock". Through that faith of our fathers - our Thompson ancestors - their descendants have the strength and determination that Bethel will stand - a symbol of religious freedom so precious to Americans.

THE BETHEL-THOMPSON FAMILY ASSOCIATION

THE BETHEL-THOMPSON FAMILY GATHERING BEGAN IN 1925 AS A SIMPLE FAMILY GROUP BUT GREW QUICKLY INTO A FULL-FLEDGED REUNION. IT NOW HAS THE OFFICIAL NAME OF BETHEL-THOMPSON FAMILY ASSOCIATION. (THE NAME "BETHEL" COMES FROM OLD BETHEL METHODIST CHURCH IN LAWRENCE COUNTY, MISSISSIPPI, THE "HOME" OF THE THOMPSONS AND THEIR KIN. AND, OF COURSE, DISTINUIGHES THE GROUP FROM OTHER THOMPSON REUNIONS IN THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPI.

THE ASSOCIATION AS STATED WAS ORGANIZED SOME SIXTY YEARS AGO AND BY THE REV. GEORGE H. THOMPSON WHO SERVED AS ITS FIRST CHAIRMAN. REV. THOMPSON, A MINISTER OF THE MISSISSIPPI METHODIST CONFERENCE, WAS LICENSES TO PREACH IN 1887 AND ADMITTED FULLY IN 1891. DURING HIS ACTIVE MINISTRY HE SERVED SOME 19 CHARGES IN MISSISSIPPI AS WELL AS PRESIDING ELDER OF SEVERAL DIFFERENT DISTRICTS. HE WAS WELL EDUCATED, HAVING STUDIED IN THE THE THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY AT VANDERBILT UNIVERSITY. HE WAS CONSIDERED ONE OF THE MOST EFFECTIVE MINISTERS OF HIS TIME BY THOSE IN THE METHODIST CONFERENCE. HIS CONTRIBUTION BOTH TO THE MINISTRY AND TO HIS FAMILY ORGANIZATION WAS INVALUABLE.

DURING THE WORLD WAR II YEARS, THE THOMPSON FAMILY REUNION WAS ON HIATUS, BUT RECONVENED IN 1946.

SERVING AS CHAIRMEN FOR THE GROUP OVER THE YEARS HAVE BEEN REV. THOMPSON, R.L. THOMPSON, JOHN F. GIBSON, W.P. HOWELL, J.E. BUCKLEY, CLYDE THOMPSON, JAMES TAYLOR THOMPSON, JERRY TAYLOR THOMPSON AND CURRENTLY, J.D. "TIKE" THOMPSON.

MUCH PROGRESS HAVE BEEN MADE OVER THE YEARS AND UNDER THE GUIDANCE OF THESE MEN AND OTHERS WHO HAVE WORKED DILIGENTLY FOR THE THOMPSON ASSOCIATION. PROVISION FOR PERPETUAL CARE OF THE CHURCH, GROUNDS, AND CEMETERY IS ENSURED. THERE WILL ALWAYS BE A "HOME" AT BETHEL FOR THE THOMPSON FAMILY.

THE THOMPSON FAMILY MEETS EACH YEAR ON THE SECOND SUNDAY IN JULY AT OLD BETHEL METHODIST CHURCH NEAR NEW HEBRON, MISSISSIPPI.

JOSEPH THOMPSON-REVOLUTIONARY WAR PATRIOT

JOSEPH THOMPSON - THE PROGENITOR OF THOSES AFFILIATED WITH THE BETHEL-THOMPSON FAMILY ASSOCIATION AND COUNTLESS OTHERS THROUGHOUT THE UNITED STATES - WAS BORN IN ENGLAND IN 1747. LITTLE IS KNOWN OF HIS EARLY YEARS, HIS PARENTS, OR EXACTLY WHEN HE ARRIVED IN AMERICA DESPITE EFFORTS TO FIND THIS INFORMATION.

WHETHER JOSEPH THOMPSON WAS MARRIED AT THE TIME OF HIS ARRIVAL IN THIS COUNTRY IS NOT KNOWN; OR IS IT A CERTAINTY HE WAS MARRIED ONLY ONCE. IN MANY BRANCHES OF THE FAMILY THERE IS THE TRADITION THAT HIS WIFE'S NAME WAS "SARAH" OR "SALLY". HOWEVER, HIS WILL NAMES HIS WIFE AS "MOLLY" THE PET NAME FOR "MARY." IT IS TRUE "STORIES" CHANGE AS THEYS ARE HANDED DOWN FROM GENERATION TO GENERATION. THERE WAS A "SALLY" OR SARAH - THE MOTHER OF ANN DALRYMPLE, WHO MARRIED RANSOM THOMPSON, SON OF JOSEPH THOMPSON, SR.!

THERE WAS ALSO THE TRADITION THAT JOSEPH THOMPSON AND HIS WIFE WERE MARRIED AT SEA. IT IS SAID THEY SETTLED FOR A WHILE IN STAFFORD COUNTY, VIRGINIA ... SOME SAY IT WAS PENNSYLVANIA. NOTHING HAS BEEN FOUND TO PROVE OR DISPROVE EITHER OF THESE TRADITIONS.

IT IS FACT THAT TO JOSEPH AND HIS WIFE THERE WAS BORN A SON JOSEPH IN 1774 AND THAT THIS JOSEPH JR. WAS BORN IN SOUTH CAROLINA. THIS ESTABLISHES THE RESIDENCE OF OUR ANCESTOR DURING THE REVOLUTIONARY WAR PERIOD. TWO YEARS LATER, A SECOND SON, ROBERT, WAS BORN TO THIS COUPLE. THE THIRD SON, RANSOME(RANSOM,RANDSOME,TO LIST OTHER SPELLINGS) WAS BORN IN 1778. NEXT WAS DAUGHTER ELIZABETH OR BETSY AS SHE WAS CALLED, BORN IN 1780 - SHE MARRIED THOMAS GARNER. DAUGHTER NANCY, BORN THE NEXT YEAR, LATER MARRIED ISHAM GREEN BY WHOM SHE HAD CHILDREN, AND SECONDLY MARRIED LAUDOWICK ORR, BY WHOM SHE HAD THREE KNOWN CHILDREN. IN 1788, A SON ZACHARIAH WAS BORN TO JOSEPH THOMPSON AND HIS WIFE. JOHN THOMPSON WAS BORN IN 1795 AND LATER MARRIED PEGGIE GADYS(GADDIS). THE NINTH CHILD, MARY OR "POLLY", WAS BORN IN 1803, JUST SEVEN YEARS BEFORE HER FATHER DIED; SHE MARRIED ZABUD DUCKWORTH, A BROTHER TO CHARITY DUCKWORTH WHO MARRIED POLLY'S BROTHER ZACHARIAH!

ALL OF JOSEPH THOMPSON'S CHILDREN HAD A NUMBER OF CHILDREN; THE THOMPSON FAMILY SEEMS TO BE A PROLIFIC ONE. COUSINS MARRIED COUSINS QUITE OFTEN - THIS ADDED TO THE CONFUSION IN TRACING THOMPSON DESCENDANTS.

OF INTEREST IS THE FACT THAT TWO THOMPSON BROTHERS MARRIED TWO DALRYMPLE SISTERS - DAUGHTERS OF SAMUEL AND SARAH (POLLOCK)DALRYMPLE.

ROBERT MARRIED ELINOR; RANSOM MARRIED ANN. THE DALRYMPLES WERE SCOTTISH AND WERE NEIGHBORS OF THE THOMPSONS IN SOUTH CAROLINA. SALLY(POLLOCK) DALRYMPLE WAS A DAUGHTER OF JAMES AND ANN (____) POLLOCK OF DUNCAN'S CREEK, LAURENS COUNTY, SOUTH CAROLINA. THEY TOO WERE OF SCOTTISH DESCENT.

JOSEPH THOMPSON SERVED HIS COUNTRY DURING THE WAR FOR INDEPENDENCE. RECORDS SHOW HE FURNISHED PROVISIONS FOR THE YOUNG AMERICAN ARMY. HE FURNISHED SUCH ITEMS AS CORN, RYE, FLOUR, LEATHER, RATIONS FOR SOLDIERS, FORAGE FOR HORSES. THIS WAS INDEED A FINE PATRIOTIC SERVICE WHEN SO OFTEN THE SOLDIERS OR THEIR HORSES HAD LITTLE TO EAT.

ANOTHER STORY FOUND IN ALL BRANCHES OF THE THOMPSON FAMILY WAS THAT JOSEPH'S WIFE WAS FORCED TO TAKE HER CHILDREN AND HIDE IN A CAVE FOR SEVERAL DAYS TO ESCAPE THE BRITISH. WHERE JOSEPH WAS AT THIS TIME, THE TALE DID NOT MENTION!

MOST OF OUR THOMPSONS WERE METHODISTS. IN THE EARLY DAYS THEY ATTENDED THE M.E. OR METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH. FROM THE OBITUARY OF JOSEPH'S DAUGHTER REBECCA PRINTED IN THE CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE WE LEARN THIS:

"SISTER REBECCA HUNNICUT, WIDOW OF JOHN HUNNICUT AND DAUGHTER OF JOSEPH AND MARY THOMPSON, WAS BORN IN PENDELTON DISTRICT, SOUTH CAROLINA, SEPTEMBER 18, 1783. SHE PROFESSED RELIGION AND JOINED THE M.E. CHURCH AT THE AGE OF 14 ..." "... SHE REMEMBERED HAVING SEEN THE FIRST BISHOP OF AMERICA; ALSO TO HAVE HEARD BISHOP ASHBURY PREACH."

INCIDENTALLY, ONE OF THE THOMPSON DESCENDANTS WAS NAMED "ASHBURY THOMPSON."

JOSEPH THOMPSON LIVED OUT HIS LIFE IN SOUTH CAROLINA, RESIDING IN PENDELTON DISTRICT AT THE TIME OF HIS DEATH. IN HIS WILL OF 1810, HE MENTIONS SONS ROBERT, RANSOM, ZACHARIAH AND JOSEPH; DAUGHTERS NANCY GREEN, BETSY GARNER; HIS THREE YOUNGER CHILDREN--REBECCA, JOHN AND POLLY; AND HIS "LAWFUL WIFE "MOLLY" THOMPSON. HE STATES THAT MOLLY IS TO BE THE EXECUTRIX HIS SON ROBERT THE EXECUTOR.

THE YEARS FOLLOWING THE DEATH OF THEIR FATHER FOUND MANY OF OUR THOMPSONS LIVING IN GWINETT COUNTY, GEORGIA. THEIR MIGRATION TOWARD THE WEST HAD BEGUN.

WHAT A PITY SO MANY RECORDS IN THE SOUTH WERE LOST - EITHER BY DESIGN OR ACCIDNET.N PERHAPS WE COULD HAVE COMPLETE THE PUZZLE OF JOSEPH THOMPSON'S LIFE - TO HAVE AT LEAST PERHAPS A PICTURE OF HIS SOCIAL STANDING, HIS SERVICE TO THE CHURCH, HIS LIFE STYLE. WE CAN TAKE MUCH PRIDE IN THE FACT HE WAS A REVOLUTIONARY WAR PATRIOT! AND HE WAS OUR FOREFATHER, PRODUCING A FINE FAMILY. AND THESE CHILDREN WERE HIS LIFE!

WILLIAM SMYTHE THOMPSON, SON OF RANSOM AND GRANDSON OF JOSEPH, WAS REARED AT THE "BASE OF STONE MOUNTAIN" GEORGIA. IN EARLY MANHOOD HE HELPED SURVEY THE FAMOUS PEACHTREE STREET IN ATLANTA, A CITY WHICH WAS FIRST CALLED MARTHASVILLE. SOME OF WILLIAM S.THOMPSON'S FAMILY MIGRATED TO MISSISSIPPI, SEVERAL SETTLING IN JACKSON. OTHERS REMAINED IN GEORGIA. AS STATED, HIS CHILDREN, YES, GRANDCHILDREN TOO, WERE JOSEPH'S LIFE. BY LEARNING ALL POSSIBLE ABOUT HIS DESCENDANTS, WE GAIN INSIGHT INTO THE FOREFATHER OF US ALL!

THE GENEALOGICAL DATA

THE FORMAT OF THE THOMPSON GENEALOGICAL JOURNAL HAS FOLLOWED THAT OF REV. GEORGE H. THOMPSON'S ORIGINAL JOURNAL AS FAR AS FEASIBLE. AN EFFORT HAS BEEN MADE TO PRESERVE HIS PARTICULAR STYLE. IN THIS 1985 FORMAT FAMILIES DO NOT NECESSARILY FOLLOW IN SEQUENCE.

ACROSS THE TOP OF EACH PAGE IN THIS GENEALOGICAL SECTION (PART II) THE DESCENDING GENERATIONS ARE LISTED THUSLY:

JOSEPH/RANSOM/ZACHARIAH TALIAFERRO/WILLIAM WESLEY

"JOSEPH" IS, OF COURSE, THE FIRST GENERATION IN AMERICA, RANSOM, THE SECOND GENERATION; EACH SUBSEQUENT GENERATION FOLLOWING, DIVIDED BY A SLASH MARK. SO OBVIOUSLY, "WILLIAM WESLEY" IS THE FOURTH GENERATION!

LISTED UNDER THE ABOVE - BUT ONLY AT THE TOP OF EACH PAGE - ARE THESE HEADINGS:

PARENTS BORN DIED

WITH THEIR CHILDREN AND THEIR SPOUSES LISTED BELOW AS FOLLOWS:

| CHILDREN: | MARRIED |
|---|---|
| (A) MARY BALSORAH THOMPSON | PHILIP BENJ. BASS |
| (B) ETC. | |

ALWAYS KEEP IN MIND THAT JOSEPH IS THE FIRST GENERATION AND COUNT FROM THERE.

A CONCENTRATED EFFORT HAS BEEN MADE OVER THE YEARS TO GATHER THOMPSON DATA OF ALL KINDS. THIS EFFORT HAS NOT ALWAYS PRODUCED ANSWERS TO GENEALOGICAL QUESTIONS. MUCH TIME AND MONEY HAS BEEN SPENT IN WRITING LETTERS, MAKING OTHER CONTACTS, EVEN BY TELEPHONE. REGRETABLY, NOT ALL LETTERS WERE ANSWERED. HENCE, SOME OF THE "COUSINS" WILL NOT BE LISTED. EVERY EFFORT HAS BEEN MADE TO BE ACCURATE - THE MATERIAL HAS BEEN USED (WITH SOME EXCEPTIONS) AS WAS SUBMITTED.

VOLUME II WILL CONTAIN FURTHER INFORMATION THAT COULD NOT BE IN THIS VOLUME DUE TO SPACE. IT WILL ALSO CONTAIN MANY INTERESTING DOCUMENTS, SOURCES OF INFORMATION AND AN INDEX TO BOTH VOLUMES.

THOMPSON - Miss Mary Gresham, 116 NW Third St., Gainesville, Fla. 32601 wants the marriage record of LITTLEBERRY THOMPSON and PATIENCE ? Who was she?
She was dismissed from Mars Hill Church in 1808. Her gravestone is in Wilkinson Co., Miss. where she died in 1851; she was b. 1782.
Littleberry received a passport from the Georgia Governor to pass through the Creek Nation in 1808, and left a will in Wilkinson County, Miss. in 1839.

EDITOR'S NOTE:I find no marriage license in Clarke Co. for Littleberry and Patience, and the only mention in THE STROUDS, by A.B. Stroud is this (pp. 38-9).

At this time Little Berry Thompson was about eighteen years old and was a great help in the struggles of the family. A few years later he married and moved to Mississippi, where he grew wealthy and became a man of influence and standing in his county and state. He died just before the commencement of the Civil War. Little Berry Thompson was greatly loved by his brothers and sisters (half-brothers and sisters Stroud). ( The year mentioned was 1798 when Mark Stroud died in July.)

Mary of Peubea, lived in Madison County, married CHARLES WILLIFORD, moved to Coweta Co., Ga., and died in 1845.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Mr. Cain, if you have not already seen HISTORICAL SKETCHES, PRESBYTERIAN CHURCHES AND EARLY SETTLERS IN NORTHEAST GEORGIA by Groves Harrison Cartledge, then you should. It is out of print, but can be obtained on inter-library loan through your public library from the University of Georgia Library, Athens, Ga 30601. It is full of citations to this Thompson family from their Revolutionary service down to the mid 1880s.

Dr. Casey's AMITE COUNTY, MISS. may help with records of Alexander, Jr. and Eunice Thompson. There is a co[py] in the Mississippi State Archives, Jackson, and I expect one in Birmingham Public Library, Samford University at Birmingham Library, and Alabama Archives in Montgomery, since the author is a practicing physician in Birmingham.

Page one of Will Book A, Madison County, Ga. begins with the will of JOHN THOMPSON who leaves all to younger brother WILLIAM THOMPSON, and remainder of personal estate to siblings James, Sarah Robbinson, Ruth Strickland, Alexander, Esther Langford, Robert, and William. Will signed 10-29-1811, proved 3-12-1813.

Look also for earlier Thompson records in Elbert, and earlier in Wilkes Co., Ga., Mr. Cain.

THOMPSON - Mr. D.E.Cain, Sr., 605 W. Simmons Ave., Enterprise, Ala. 36330 seeks data on the THOMPSON family of Madison Co., Ga., who came to Alabama from the area of the South Fork of the Broad River.
A JOHN ALEXANDER THOMPSON served as Sheriff, and his son as well. One DR. BERRY MILROY THOMPSON located here. His mother was a daughter of JAMES MADISON THOMPSON, the son of WILLIAM THOMPSON and NANCY TILLMAN. James Madison is said to have been born in N.C., then moved with his parents to the South Fork area, and was buried in Comer, Ga. Much family tradition, but birth dates and names of wives and husbands are missing.

Children of WILLIAM THOMPSON and NANCY TILLMAN were:
John Alexander, Sheriff for many years, whose son also served as sheriff.
William Tillman

KNIGHT-OGDEN-Mr. John H. Stockett, 1556 Aberdeen St., Baton Rouge, La. 70808-would like information concerning WILLIAM JAMES KNIGHT, b. about 1749, family from Virginia, lived on Big Black branch of Little Saluda River, S. C. and was a member of Nine or Mine Creek Baptist Church of Sandy Creek Association. When British and Tories overran S. C. in 1780, members of this church came to Miss., settled few miles north of Natchez on Cole Creek and founded Salem Baptist Church. They came in three flat boats, RICHARD, WILLIAM and BENJAMIN CURTIS, WILLIAM and DANIEL OGDEN, JOHN COURTNEY, JOHN JONES, ---PERKINS and at this time or later WILLIAM and REV. BAILEY CHENEY, JOSEPH WILLIS and WILLIAM THOMPSON, maybe others. Mr. Stockett would like to what county in S. C. they were from and will exchange information concerning the Knight and Ogden families.

THOMPSON- ROSS -THOMAS - FONDRIN - Mr. Dave Boatman, 1011 Francitas, Houston, Texas 77038 needs parentage of ELZY THOMPSON b ca 1814 Ga. m. first MARTHA ROSS in Decatur Co., Ga., 2nd MARY ELIZABETH THOMAS in Thomas County Ga. 8/30/1855.
DANIEL THOMPSON b ca 1815 Ga never married. He went to the California gold fields and died in that state in the early 1900's.
NANCY THOMPSON b ca 1816 Ga m. JOHN GUYTON FONDRIN. All of these appear in the 1850 census of Thomas County, Ga. in house 449, 501 and 502., along with a MARY THOMPSON, aged 54, in the Fondrin household. Elzy was wealthy and believed to have died due to his political activities during the Civil War. The early Thomas County history mentions only an E Thompson who served on a jury. Mr. Boatman feels that Elzy Thompson made history there. Can you help?

EDITOR'S NOTE: The land in Thomas County lay in Creek Territory, and was granted to Georgia citizens in one of our land lotteries. How did your Thompsons get their land? Thomas County was not opened for settlement till after these children were gorn. Where were they then living in Georgia.

In 1876 J. R. N. Thompson ginned 56 bales of cotton at the Brashier Spring near where J. W. Cobb now lives

Isaac Thompson operated a grist mill just below where Mink Creek pours over Thompson falls. It washed away in 1873 when the July freshet came. Old folks have told me it rained 40 days and nites. Not much crops made that year.

Thomas Issac Keys, Sr. was my great-grandfather. I know that he owned a lot of property in Ocean Springs and that for a number of years he was the postmaster of Ocean Springs. I also know that he owned a store in Ocean Springs and was a staunch Republican and, at some point, had been a delegate to the National Republican Convention.

Much of the information I have gathered about him was found in a book by Regina Hines, Ocean Springs, 1892. I am interested in any information on Thomas and his family and about his store. I am especially interested in learning if there are any pictures of him, his family or his store. I am also interested in any information about the Evergreen Cemetary which, I believe was or is owned by the family. Finally, would there be a copy of his commission as the postmaster anywhere?

Thanks for any help you can give me.

Yours truly,
Judith R. Thompson

trally located, as the county then embraced all of Simpson county, and my grandfather was awarded the contract to build the first courthouse of the county. He was not a carpenter nor a housebuilder, but he owned a negro man slave who was a skillful carpenter and builder. The courthouse was erected by the negro slave. Simpson county was created in 1824; its territory embraced all that part of the original Copiah county lying east of Pearl River. This placed the then county site of Copiah county, "Coors Springs," near the eastern boundary of the county and necessitated its change to a more central point, and it was removed to Gallatin where it remained until 1872 when it was again removed to Hazlehurst, the present site. My grandfather again secured the contract to build at Gallatin the second of the county's courthouses. This he did in the autumn of 1824 through the instrumentality of his negro slave carpenter.

In the latter part of 1823 my paternal grandfather removed from his home near Pearl River to what was then known as the "Homochitto Settlement" in the southwestern part of Copiah county. The name was given that locality because of the confluence there of several small streams forming the Homochitto river. There he built a brick two story dwelling house, the first brick house built in the county, and there I was born and reared to manhood. This house for many years was regarded as one of the most noted and substantial dwelling houses in the county. It remained in existence for a few months more than one hundred years when it was destroyed by fire. It had passed from the ownership of the Thompsons about thirty years before it was burned, and had been largely neglected and decayed at the time it was destroyed.

My paternal grandfather died in the house when in the fifty-fifth year of his age; thereafter it was occupied and the home of my paternal grandmother, my father living with her as long as she lived. After her death my father acquired ownership of the place and it was his home and that of his family until November 1870; its ownership however, was retained by my father for sometime after it ceased to be his home. My grandmother Thompson was a woman of superior intellect; was refined an gentle in manners, a consistent Christian and a devou member of the Methodist church from early life until he death.

The ancestry of my maternal grandparents cannot b traced by me farther back than a time when they wer residents of South Carolina. My grandfather John Wat son was born in that state in which he married Margare Mikell who was also born in South Carolina. They re moved to this state about the time Mississippi was ad mitted as a State of the Union, and settled in that part o Marion county now in Walthall county. My father an mother were born in what is now Walthall county. The did not know each other before their respective parent removed from the places of their births; my grandfathe Thompson as hereinbefore stated, removed to what wa then Hinds county, and my grandfather Watson remove to Covington county where my mother spent her earl girlhood days. When my mother was approaching wom anhood her father's family removed from Covington coun ty to Copiah county, settling within a few miles of m father's residence and my father and mother soon thereaft er became acquainted with each other for the first time. M grandfather Watson was a direct descendant of a siste of Edward Rutledge, of South Carolina, a signer of the Declaration of Independence, and of John Rutledge of the same state, whom President Washington appointed chie justice of the United States. My grandmother Watson died when quite young, leaving six children. She was said by those who knew her to have been a woman of intelligence and refinement. My grandfather Watson was the only one of my grandparents who lived until after I was born. I remember to have seen him when I was a child and recall many acts of kindness he extended to me. He was highly respected by his neighbors and other persons who knew him; was pronounced by all of them to be a truly good man. He and his wife were consistent and earnest Christians, members of the Methodist church.

My paternal grandparents had two sons and six daughters, all of whom except two of the sisters married. My maternal grandparents had two daughters and four sons, all of them except one son married and had several children. My uncles, aunts and their descendants have all well obeyed the Scriptural injunction to multiply and replenish the earth; as a result I have numerous first, second, third, fourth, etc., cousins, many of whom I have never had the pleasure of seeing or knowing. Those of my kindred whom I have personally known have been honest people and worthy citizens. Here is an interesting incident in the life of Doctor Samuel Johnson, that when the doctor had made up his mind to ask the woman who afterwards became his wife to marry him he made known his purpose to the woman, forbidding her to reply until he informed her that one of his near kinsmen had been capitally executed for crime. When so informed the woman answered that the information given by the doctor was a matter of no consequence; that no relative of hers had ever been convicted of crime but she felt assured several of them richly deserved to have been convicted and capitally punished. Unlike the woman who became Doctor Johnson's wife I have never even suspected any of my kindred I have known to have been guilty of crime or the violation of social duty. A larger number of them reside in the southwestern portion of this state than elsewhere; but goodly numbers of them are residents of both Louisiana and Texas; and others live in each of several states east and north of Mississippi.

My mother was a woman of a strong mind; she took great interest in, and was well informed about, public affairs. When a mere boy I could not understand why ignorant and uneducated men, whose opinions on any and all subjects were regarded as of no value, were permitted to vote and my mother denied that right. From childhood I favored women's rights and was pleased when the right of suffrage was bestowed on them.

My father's home was supplied with many more books than were to be found in typical plantation homes in the days of my boyhood. These books were largely historical, biographical and religious in character. My mother read a great deal and as soon as I was able to read even pas-sably well she induced me to read a goodly number o books, some of them, I am sure, were beyond my capacit to thoroughly comprehend. Among the books I remember to have read when a mere boy were: Sparks' "American Biographies," a work of many, probably twenty volumes, containing sketches of the lives and characters o distinguished Americans, especially Revolutionary Wa soldiers; "Baxter's Everlasting Saints Rest," a book I am sure I was unable to fully comprehend; "Weems' Life o Washington," and Fox's "Book of Martyrs," and others not worthy of special mention. I am sure that as a boy I must have been somewhat incredulous; many matters of fact stated in "Weems' Life of Washington" I could not believe to be true although the author was a preacher. The little hatchet and cherry tree story seemed to me to be ridiculous; it made Washington, a manly boy, a mere "sissie." The boy Washington of course had the power to tell a lie; it occurred to me that Parson Weems made him tell a falsehood seemingly to prove him truthful. I have never known a truthful man or boy to boast of or proclaim his truthfulnesss, nor a brave man to boast of his valor. I regarded as ridiculous Parson Weems' statement that when at the battle of King's Mountain the American riflemen fired on the British soldiers they killed so many of them that when the souls of the "redcoats" ascended upward they shook the tops of the trees through which they passed. I wondered what could have been expected of a layman if a preacher could write such absurdities. I also found in Fox's "Book of Martyrs" some marvelous statements hard to believe to be true. One of them I afterwards learned had no foundation in fact. When quite a young lawyer I was employed to defend a libel suit, the defence being that the writing was not maliciously written and published, but for a legitimate purpose. While investigating the law on this subject I found an early decision of the English courts (Cro. J, 91) the facts of which were: A clergyman in his sermon recited a case out of Fox's Martyrology, that one Greenwood being a perjured person, a great blasphemer and persecutor, had plagues inflicted upon him and was killed by the hand of God. Greenwood who had not been so plagued but was alive and present and heard the sermon, sued the preacher for calling him a perjured person, a blasphemer etc.; the jury found for the defendant and the court approved the verdict on the ground that the preacher delivered the matter as a story believing it to be true and not with intent to slander. My libel case was appealed to our State supreme court and the decision therein is reported, 57 Miss. p. 7, et seq. The finding of the old English court decision strongly tended to confirm my boyish incredulity of some things I had read in books. However, I was never incredulous of anything in the Holy Scriptures; I was taught to believe and firmly believed the Bible to be the word of God and accepted it as absolutely true. I recognized that many parts of it related to the infinite, beyond the comprehension of finite minds. The teachings of the Bible are to be accepted on faith; they are directed to the heart rather than to the intellect.

My father and mother had but one son, myself, and six daughters. Three of their daughters died in infancy, certainly when of tender years. My recollection of them is quite distinct, though I was very young when they died. My oldest sister, Mrs. Julia T. Chrisman, now in the ninetieth year of her age and an inmate of my home, is a woman of superior intellectual and moral worth. She was well educated in her youth; her mind and memory are as clear and accurate in her old age as the mind and memory of any person I have ever known. She was married in 1860 to Thomas J. Chrisman, a native of Kentucky, a worthy man, a resident citizen of Copiah county. Her husband in the early days of the War between the States became a Confederate soldier, was the captain of Company "A" of the 36th regiment of Mississippi infantry and was killed in battle defending Vicksburg in 1863. After his death my sister never married. She is a most thoroughly unreconstructed rebel, I fear; she has never forgiven nor endeavored to forgive the people she calls "Yankees" for making war on the Southern states and their people. She was the mother of two daughters; one of them, Anna Clara Chrisman, a young woman of great merit, who became a missionary of the Methodist church, South, and lost her life by a tragic event when en route to Brazil to begin the labors there assigned to her by the church. The other daughter of my sister, Julia, Agnes Chrisman, a woman of decided merit, became the wife of the Rev. Charles F. Smith, a member of a Texas Methodist conference and their home is and has been in that state for many years.

My sister Laura and I were twins and I cannot believe a brother and sister were ever more devoted each to the other than were we. We were almost constant companions from our birth until her death, save only when attending different schools. She was intellectually strong, was thoroughly educated and a great social favorite of all persons who knew her well. She was married near the time she reached maturity to Dr. James T. Holmes, but died a year later, leaving no children. Her husband, a worthy man, removed from this State to Georgia shortly after his wife's death and died in that state many years ago.

My sister Margaret (called Peggy in her youth) was seven years my junior. She was intellectually strong, her deportment admirable, and she was in every sense, of fine character. If my parents had one and a special purpose, a dominant one, it was to have their children thoroughly educated. My sister of whom I now write, was sent to the best school available, and her education was finished at a celebrated college for women in the state of Virginia. I have known but few women whose education was better than that of my sister Margaret. She was married when quite young, to Dr. John T. Butler, a native of this State, but at the time of her marriage, a physician of distinction of the state of Missouri. They made their home after their marriage in the northern part of that state for several years; but the rigorous climate caused my sister's health to become impaired and they returned to Mississippi, making their home at Brookhaven where I resided at that time. I have never known a more worthy man than Dr. Butler, nor a more worthy woman than his wife. They were the parents of three children; their oldest child, Charles T. Butler, was born in Missouri and he was educated in liberal arts at the university of that state. After his parents returned to Mississippi, he was educated in law at the State university. He began the practice of law at Brookhaven, but remained there only a short time before removing to Beaumont, Texas, of which city he is now an eminent and successful lawyer, and in every respect a worthy man and citizen. Two daughters were born to Dr. and Mrs. Butler, the older, Pauline, is now the wife of Sidney McMullen, a gentleman and a worthy business man of New Orleans. Clara, the younger of the sisters, a gifted musician, a charming girl and social favorite of her friends, died when approaching womanhood.

The matter of my early schooling is not of special interest; however, of it I shall say: There were in those days no public schools in that part of the State where I was born and reared; the only schools even attempted to be maintained were private ones, the teachers' only compensation being tuition paid for each pupil. The white population of the community was too small and its educable children insufficient in number to secure efficient schools. The sessions of such schools as were there maintained were of short duration and the obtainable compensation of teachers fell short of being attractive to competent instructors. The result was that when a boy I attended quite a number of such schools, and had a half dozen or more teachers. Two or three of these teachers I am sure were competent, efficient and worthy, but I cannot resist the conclusion that others of them knew but little, if anything to teach. The first school I attended was held in a one-room house, distant from my home about one mile; I was then not quite five years old. Of this school I recall only one incident: on its first day when a recess was given the children, all of them left the schoolroom and went into the yard; little having been said by any of them for several minutes, I perhaps the youngest and smallest of the pupils, spoke, saying, "We big boys should play some games or other." This caused hearty laughter.

During my early school days I am confident of having had capacity for learning mathematics greater than a majority of my classmates. I learned the multiplication tables in an afternoon but probably one half of my classmates required a week or ten days to master them. I also remember that the study of geography was specially pleasing to me, but books on that subject then taught in schools gave more information of rivers, lakes, peninsulars, straits, etc., of foreign countries than of useful geographic features of our own State. This caused me to carefully examine an accessible map of Mississippi and from it I learned the names of the counties, their several locations, the names of the county sites, the location of the principal rivers, their sources, general direction of their flow, and other like information.

In those days the children walked to schools if the distance of the school house from their home was a reasonable one for so doing. I have known them to walk a distance of three miles to and from schools. Where this distance was greater the children rode on horseback to and from schools. The idea of children being transported to and from schools at public expense was not even thought of in those days. I rode a pony to at least three schools distant respectively from my home, four, five, and six miles. One of them was located in what is now Lincoln county. I will now relate how I was induced to chew tobacco, then much more common than now. A fine girl of whom I was quite fond, living one and one half miles farther from the school last mentioned than I did, attended the school; her custom was to ride horseback on Monday mornings, passing my home with a companion. She boarded from Monday mornings until Friday afternoons with a family living near the schoolhouse, sending her horse back home by her riding companion, who would return for her Friday afternoons. I made it a point to join her on her Monday morning rides and we almost invariably rode together on Friday afternoons on returns to our homes. During one of these Monday morning rides she said to me that I was not man enough to chew tobacco. My reply was "Give

SARAH MATHENEY vs. JOHN W. MATHENEY, et.al.
Accounting, &c. Filed Jan. 30, 1843. Supplemental Bill filed June 27,1843.

Petitioner is the wife of said John W. Matheney andsues by her next friend, Benj. F. Peeples of said Barnwell Dist. Her father, George Odom of said District, died in 1839, leaving a will dated Dec. 28, 1830, by the terms of which he devised "all the rest and residue of my personal property to my four children, Sarah Matheney, George R. Odom, Lucy D. Peeples and Allen M. Odom, equally, and if either of them die w/o issue, them his or her share sha vest in the surviving legatees". Testator provided in his will for his siste Elizabeth Zachery living in Louisiana, to have not over $75.00 per year for her support. Testator lived several years after signing the will, and accumulated much other property undevised by the will. Testator's daughter, Lucy D. Peeples, later married Wm.M. Jones by whom she had two children Lucia Juliana Jones and Joseph J. Jones (who has since died a minor, unmarrie Said Lucy died before her father did,leaving as her soleheirs-at-law the said two Jones children, and Darling G. Peeples and Elizabeth A. Peeples, children by a former marriage.

Exhibit "A" attached to petition: Certified copy of will of George Odom, late of B.D., dated Dec. 28, 1830, devising to his two sons, George R. andAllen Madison Odom the plantation where testator resided, being about 300 acres, all household goods, etc. Bequests also made to his other children, said Sarah Matheney, Lucy D. Peeples, as already stated. In the file is an original plat of 1713 acres in said district, owned by deceased at his death, and dated Nov. 19,1846. Slaves of the deceased were appraised in 1843 at $18,000.00; total appraised value of estate, $28,277.50.

Original Power of Attorney in the file, executed in Wahsington Parish, La., dated Dec, 18, 1843, executed by Mrs. Elizabeth Odom, widow, heretofore thewife of Benjamin Zachary, deceased, now of said Parish, appointing Angus Patterson of B.D., to represent her in all matters arising under the will of her deceased brother, George Odom. WILLIAM AARON et. al. vs. JOHN THOMPSON AND JOSEPH THOMPSON.
Accounting, &c. Filed Feb. 1, 1821.

Petitioners are Richard, William and Alphania Aaron, minors, who sue by their adult brother, John Aaron, all being children of WILLIAM AARON, late of B.D., deceased. The elder Aaron owned asmall estate at his death on (blank date) intestate. The estate descended to his widow (unnamed) and to petitioners "and the other children of the intestate". John Thompson became admr., and sold same at auction, and has moved out of the state without making any accounting. Before leaving, he delivered to his brother, Joseph Thompson, the share to which petitioners are entitled; the bondsmen of said admr., have also moved out of the State; Joseph Thompson has sold his property here and intends moving "into foreign parts", and refuses to deliver petitioners' estate to any one for them.

Joseph Thompson's affidavit dated Feb.5, 1821, says that his brother John Thompson, administered said estate and removed about 1813 to Mississippi Territoey; that John left the administered estate with him, affiant, to handle for him; that the decedent, William Aaron, left surviving him his wife Elizabeth and five children; that the widow died at Job Rountree's about the time John took over the estate, and Rountree charged $12.50 for looking after her in her illness.

Dear Pat,

It was very good to get your card. I have bought a number of your books and I did mean to send you some of my family sheets before now. As usual, however, I procrastinated and failed to do it.

I am sending what I have on Duncan Thompson and his children, plus the main sheets on Shadrach Rogers and on William Nelson West. I also have sheets on each of SR's children, as well as a whole ms on the West descendants which was compiled by the Daughdrills - do you have this? If not I will send you a copy. I have been meaning for some time to redo it and add more information but haven't gotten around to it. (!)

I also have a ms on the Thorntons of Scott & Newton, and a separate one on William A. Thornton. Let me know if you can use these as well.

I have some comments on various points concerning the individual sheets but I think it would be easier to put them on post-it notes on the sheets. If you can add anything to what I have found please note it and send the sheet back. I will update and send you a new one. (If this is the easiest way for you?)

Perhaps I should explain the outline a bit. Duncan Thompson's son Neil died c. 1861 and his widow, Charity, married a widower, Elijah Elias Haralson. Living in his household was his widowed daughter-in-law, Martha (Thornton), and her child. At the close of the War Charity's daughter Narcissa married Elijah's son Julius, and they lived in Newton County until 1871 or so, when they all moved to Hamilton County, Texas (with a brief stop in Comanche Co.), and then to Montague Co. Either just before the move to Texas or just after, Charity's son George married Elijah's daughter-in-law. (She was quite a bit older of course.)

There is not much documentation for most of this. In addition to what I have indicated in my footnotes, there was a suit to clear title to land in Montague Co. in the 1920's which listed the heirs of Elijah, Neil and Charity. I can send you this if you want it. It does support the information which was available from family sources.

Thanks so much for writing, & have a happy holiday!

Sincerely,

Carol

Dear Jean,

Wanted to send you this updated data on my Thomsons of Greene Co.. Our family has had all this--it was just a matter of getting it all together and written down in one place. There are only 6 of us left in our direct line and with me being the only female-- I can assure you it hasn't been easy!!!! It has been fun and someone will know how much I cared--down the line!!

Went to the McLeod Reunion last weekend. See how far I've come!! You missed a lot of good good food. I met a lot of people that can help me "untangle" some of my memories. Stacy McLeod and I talk every several months. I was glad to meet he and his wife, Sandra, for the first time---even though we felt like we knew each other from all the phone calls this past year.

The Beards of Greene Co. are my next project. One of "youngest of the oldest" lives in Clinton and she will help me.

Thank you for your help in the beginning. I yelled "help" and you responded quickly. Sometimes that makes the difference in someone continuing on with "this" journey or forgetting about it. Thanks again!

Sincerely,

Sandra

Hope this helps with some of your records —

Dear Ms. Strickland,

Answering a message from me on American Online's Genealogy Club bulletin board, Donald Logan of Long Beach recommended I contact you. I understand you have assembled various types of records.

I am doing research on my Thompson line. This part of the family tree is very sparse. My grandmother Thompson could not give any info on her father in law, Felix Thompson, other than he had married a Miss Howard, a school teacher. I have computed that Felix may have been born around 1860 - 1866 period, not a good time to retain civil records.

I may need to start with grandfather William Isaac Thompson (1880-1946) who was born in Shubuta, Clarke Co. His first wife, whom he married in 1900, Mattie Isabelle Caldwell (1877-1911) was born in Montrose, Jasper Co. My dad was born in Summerland, so around 1900-03 they must have moved there.

Any advice you can give will be helpful. What fee do you charge? My sister and I have discussed traveling to MS and LA to do on-site search. Maybe this would be a good way to spend part of my next vacation.

Hope to hear from you at your convenience.

Sincerely, Sherman Thompson

...beneficial native birds, if caught in the trap, can be freed. Canary seed, hemp seed, wheat, oats, and bread crumbs make excellent baits; or a live sparrow may be kept in the trap as a decoy. Trapping may begin at any time after the young sparrows are able to take care of themselves, which is usually by July 1. Although English sparrows are widely distributed as a species, any given community is attacked by a certain breeding, a fact that makes their control easier.

PECAN

Mr. and Mrs. John Thompson have returned to their home in Boovois, Mich., after a pleasant visit here with Mr. Thompson's sister, Mrs. O. C. Marthaler.

Mr. Alex Thompson left Saturday for the North where he will visit friends and relatives. He expects to be gone several months.

Mrs. Neville Reviere and children arrived Saturday to spend the summer with Mr. Reviere, who is employed here.

Mrs. Ed. J. Murua and Miss Lempt Graves attended the short course in Pascagoula Friday.

Mr. John Lindquist, Lottie and Leonard Lindquist of Kreole, spent Sunday in Pecan.

Mr. and Mrs. John Williams of Kreole, were guests of Mrs. Matt Kenzie.

J. M. Clark and family of Bayou La Batre, were Pecan visitors Sunday.

Goodspeed, Vol I

of person and soul, and to him was as the flower-garden of the Lord. He was one of the earliest settlers of the state, and subsequently became a prominent figure in Mississippi, being active in local and state politics. His first official position was that of justice of peace. Later he was a member of the board of supervisors and was probate judge for twenty years. He represented Pike county in the state legislature, and was a representative of his district in the state senate. He proved true to the trust reposed in him, and was honored and respected even by his political opponents. He was a successful farmer, and amassed a large fortune. He was a devout Christian, and avoided even the appearance of evil; was generous and kind to the poor, and helped many to independence who would otherwise have eked out a miserable existence. He was a man of prayer, and did not dare to sin. He had over one hundred negroes on his plantation. The circuit preacher, who preached in his home also preached to the negroes, and many of them were taught the way of life, and bless the memory of this sainted man for the happy homes they had there, and refer with pride to his care of them in sickness or trouble. His beloved wife died February 3, 1858. By her he had fourteen children; only eight survived the mother. He was a true democrat; was a well-read man; had a splendid library. His children were well educated in the best schools. He married a second wife, Mrs. S. S. Equeen, of New Orleans, La., May, 1859. By her he had two sons. On July 27, 1868, he gathered up his feet in death, and joyfully went home to God. Truly he deserved the eulogy pronounced by Solomon on old age: A hoary head is a crown of glory, if it be found in the ways of righteousness, and a good name is rather to be chosen than great riches, and loving favor more than choice gold. William, the sixth son of Christian and Mary Hoover, was reared on the farm, attending school near his home until he was sixteen years of age. After that time he entered Centenary college, at Jackson, La., where he was a student for four years, when his health became impaired and he was compelled to relinquish his studies, and was thus prevented from graduating. In 1852 he was married to Miss Martha L. J. Thompson, a native of Mississippi, who was reared near Greensburg, La. She was the daughter of Alexander Thompson, of Georgia, and Dorothy Prior Womack, of St. Helena parish, La. She was educated at Readville seminary, Baton Rouge, La. In a quiet, humble way she was a leader in church and temperance work, and her best energies have been spent in the service of God. She is gifted in prayer, and it has been said that her prayers contain more theology than some preachers' sermons. To Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hoover have been born nine children: Christian R., Thomas Y., William J., Robert M., Mattie A., John S., Diotician A., Virginia D. and Wheat A. Mr. Hoover is a successful planter, owning six hundred acres of fine land, about a third of which is tillable. After the war he had a church built for the negroes to worship in, and also largely assisted in building a chapel near his home, called St. Mary, in memory of his mother. During the Civil war he was chaplain in the Thirty-third Mississippi infantry, but owing to his position he, of course, was not a participant in the battles. He has been a local preacher in the Methodist Episcopal Church South for thirty-five years. Until the last five years he has been employed by the Mississippi conference on mission and circuit work. His family, which is of German origin, was one of the oldest in this part of the South. Mr. Hoover is a well-rounded character in every relation of life, is liberal-minded, progressive, and has contributed his full share toward the establishment and maintenance of beneficial institutions, and aided everything that has a tendency to further the interests of his county and his people.

William N. Hood, a prominent citizen of Washington county, Miss, is descended from one of the oldest and best-known families of the state of Kentucky, members of which took a att: Corresponding Sec.

I've been researching John Harrison Thompson B 1840-48 Whistler, Mobile Co. Al. He married Margaret Kirkwood Cronier - 1880 Jackson Co. Ms. They were both living in Jackson Co - 1900 Beat 3, pg-42. Neither shown in 1910 census - Jackson Co. Is there a state census index for 1905 & 1910?

Her parents were Henry & Miranda Kirkwood - shown in 1850 census pg 08. Jackson Co & in 1860 pg 44, dwg # 328. I'm sure they stayed in Mississippi - I don't know where. Is there state census index available for 1870 & 1880? Some surnames on these families were: Cronier, Whittington, Savage & Lon Southern. Has anyone worked these families?

What is available in way of list of cemeteries & people buried there? I carefully gone thru cemetery films for Family History Center & found nothing.

Any help, suggestions, etc would be appreciated. If you copy something for me I'll be glad to send you check immediately.

Thank You.

Dear Ms Scott:

This will acknowledge receipt of your letter to the Jackson County Genealogical Society regarding John Harrison Thompson.

I am sending copies of what I have found and hope that the John H. Thompson in these records is the man you are looking for.

There is no state census for the time period 1905 - 1910. The only state census that exists for Jackson County is 1825.

Enclosed is copies from teh Death Record Index for Mississippi 1912 - 1924. Note John H. Thompson died in 1923. With the certificate no. next to his name and the year 1923 you can order death certificate from the Mississippi Department of Archives & History, P. O. Box 571, Jackson, MS 39204.

I have checked Cemetery Records for Jackson County and find no marked graves for the Thompsons. However, I find in a book of death records for Jackson County compiled from various sources by Melba Allen that John H. Thompson died 31 Oct 1923 at age 72 and is buried in Greenwood Cemetery and that Maggie Thompson died 20 March 1921 at age 78 and is buried in Greenwood Cemetery. Maggie may very well be a anickname for Margaret and this could be her. There are two Maggie Thompsons in the Death Record Index both dying in 1921. One that I found an Obituary for appears to be yours since the names Whittington and Savage are mentioned. Copy enclosed.

You may want to write to Mrs. Katie Steen, 3406 Baltimore, Pascagoula, MS 39567. She is a Southern family researcher and perhaps she can help you.

If we can be of further service, please let us know.

Sincerely,

Jean Strickland

BETH SALEM PRESBYTERIAN CONGREGATION -- formed by Rev. John Newton of persons resident in then Wilkes County, was cut off into Oglethorpe County in 1793. On the next two pages is a transcription of the agreement between the minister and congregation for the first year of his service. It is published for the first time. The original copy has been preserved by the Lexington Presbyterian Church historian, together with the baptismal records from 1784 to 1797 of Rev. Newton, and Minute Book A and B, covering the period from the church's reactivation in 1822 as the Lexington Presbyterian Church into the 1900's. We are placing a microfilm copy of these records in both the Presbyterian Historical Foundation (a gift from Elijah Clarke NSDAR) and the Ga. Dept. of Archives, for use by researchers.

County, Ga., 1816; left large family. Her son,John Haynes,b.1794. (2nd) ELIZABETH TRAYLOR, dau. of Thomas Traylor and his first wife (but which Thomas Traylor and his first wife?); she was born 1798, m. John Haynes 1813; moved to Ala., 1818, thence to Miss., 1835; thence to Texas 1845. (3rd) JOSIAH CULP (or KOLB) born in Ga., April 1819, moved early to Tennessee, and came to Texas c1836. (4th) AURIN G. HORNE, b.1793 in Ga., married 1st, Sophia Dekle, 2nd, Mrs. Elenor Dekle Heath; he was in Thomas Co. Ga., until about 1849 when he came to Texas; (5th) NANCY HAY, born c1801, dau. of a sea captain; married 1820 Montgomery, Ala., to Berry Heard who was born 1800. Tradition says he ran away from home as a child and went to sea; moved to Camden, Ark., c1845. (6th) BERRY HEARD, born c1800 in Ga., to Ark. 1845. Information about any of above appreciated. (Address: Mrs. Vera Culp Pollock, 5003 Bryan, Apt.G, Dallas, 6, Texas).

THOMPSON: Who has a THOMPSO N family bible which will identify our Margaret Susan Jane? We want to determine the parentage and ancestry of "Sue" Thompson, born March 14, 1837, Oglethorpe Co. Ga. She married John Augustus Smith Nov. 30, 1854 (license recorded in Newton County); Hinton Crawford, local Meth. preacher officiated. The Smiths went by wagon train to Texas, settling first at Nacogdoches, later in Tyler, and finally in Corsicana, where she died April 12, 1902. Her mother was Elizabeth -----; her father may have been related to the Thompsons in the line of Henry Woodfin Grady who was spoken of in the family as a "cousin". Sue had sisters and brothers; one named Anna or Annie and another of Atlanta, was called "Len". She attended school at Forsyth Female Collegiate Institute (this was probably a day's distance by horseback from her parents' home). The Federal Census 1850 of Morgan Co. Ga., lists #52: Fountain B. THOMPSON,age 46; Elizabeth W.,36; Susan L.,13; John F.,10; Emeline E. 7; Joseph L. 6; Martha E. 4; and Robert B.,2. Is this the correct family to fit our data? 1840 Census in Oglethorpe has a Fountain Thompson #73 which household likely is same as in Morgan County 1850. (Address: Mrs. A. R. Seder, 730 Benton Ave. East, Naperville, Illinois).

WALKER, BOOTH, O'NEAL: Who were the parents of George Walker? George Walker of Jones County, d1825, first record of property ownership in Jones Co. Ga., was 1808. His brother William Walker also lived in same county, died 1816. George Walker married Sarah Booth. After his death she married John Bayne of Jones Co.,1828. George and Sarah's known children were: George W.Walker,married in Talbot County Amanda Morgan, and moved to Crawford County; Martin Thomas Walker, m.1842 in Talbot County, Mary Antoinette O'Neal; Jeptha V. Walker, ward of Joshua Ellis and later of Martin Thomas Ellis of Harris County; Mary A. Walker m. Jeremiah Loyd; William B. Walker; Lucy Walker; Sarah Walker, and perhaps others. William Walker who died 1816 had a number of children, two minors at his death, were wards of Henry Pelt of Clarke Co. Alabama; minors were George and Balda Walker. Sarah Booth Walker-Bayne is believed to have been daughter of Zachariah Booth, Sr. In addition to desiring to learn parentage of George and William Walker (who may have had .... other brothers and sisters), I am seeking information on place and death of Sarah P. Walker Bayne (last record: sale of property in Jones Co., 1841, after death of second husband). William Walker who died 1816 is thought to have had son named Tandy Walker. (Address: Lt.Col. Mary J. Hale, USMC., 3900 University Avenue,N.W., Washington, 16, D.C.)

WILLIS, SULLIVAN: Want parents of DANIEL HICKS WILLIS born c1776 in Va., married Rachel Irwin in Jasper Co.Ga.,Oct.26,1813. Who were her parents? ## MISS THOMPSON LEAVES AFTER MANY YEARS WORK

Fifteen years of loyal service to the Advertiser and a much longer term with other Jackson county newspapers was terminated this week with the retirement of Miss Ina Thompson as social correspondent for the Advertiser. Miss Thompson began work with the old Pascagoula Chronicle, continuing with the Chronicle-Star and later taking up work with the Advertiser. In newspaper parlance, she is the "dean" of women news writers of this section, and has a record of having reported more events—events concerning the vital facts of life—that any other person in the county.

Continued necessity for the Advertiser to curtail its costs makes necessary the change in the social department of the Advertiser, and it is with regret that Miss Thompson's talents no longer will be reflected from the Advertiser's pages in words that vividly describe the important and homely happenings and pastimes of the people in one of the finest communities in the world.

Endowed by nature with a gift of expression and ability to translate into words the impressions gained from contacts and associations with people, Miss Thompson is one of the most interesting personal writers of the state. In many scrap books of Moss Point people are clippings of "personal items" telling of a birth, of a marriage or of a sadness that has come into a home. It is also a part of the history of a people.

Miss Thompson will continue her cooperation with the Advertiser, although no longer in the employ of the newspaper.

Mrs Strickland,

Ordered 2 of your books — they came in Record time — appriciate it very much.

On working on my family Preston Beard, James Beard — see where information was given to ~~boy~~ someone. Could not decide who in contributors could have done this. Could you help me? Its all be given on the ~~Preston Beard family~~.

Another line I'm working on is James Henry Thomson 1808, William Writ Thomson Sr., William Writ Thomson Jr. These are my Grandfathers also A lot of information was supplied to you on the John Thomson family. I feel James Henry and John were brothers — can't tell on the family tree I have. Could you help me - with who supplied the information on John Thomson family?

Will be able to give some dates on these families later. Maybe it will help you if you should ever up date. This book has been most helpful.

Thanks again,

Hope you can read this, if I try to do it over it won't get mailed.

Have you done anything on Adam County?

June 3, 1983

Hi,

Here is the page from the small book, that I promised. This on the top was Frances Elizabeth (H.)(R.). And I assumed the bottom was part of hers too but after studing it I have been wondering if it was part of something written for her mother on the opposite page. It looks like the same person wrote both sections. The reason I think it is part of the top - instead of for the next page is that there was room at the bottom for something else to be written but wasn't. Instead it started again on the next page. I added the year 1905 to the bottom as the earliest date found recorded..

Have you come across any pictures of the Stricklands + Hattos as you have searched and talked to people?

As I was telling you, I kept trying to work on my Rousaville line – since our reunion was so close - but something kept and keeps pulling me back to the Stricklands. I should be working on my Beeck line since it's my root line but - I've had such poor luck with it until I put it aside about 2 years ago. But have to get back to it soon. Our reunion for it is later in the summer. And I'd like to be able to have done something by the time I go to it.
I'd Better close this and get it out into the box. Call me when you've had time to look this over!

Love,
Virginia

Dear Librarian:

I am trying to find information on my ancestor and I need to know if Jean Strickland has a "Who married Whom" in Jackson County.

Also, if Jackson County has records on orphans in 1850. My Ancestor, William G. Thompson and several other Thompson children were living with neighbors in the 1850 Census.

Do you know anyone working on this family, if so please give them my address.

Thank you for your help,

Hi,
I am so sorry I haven't had a chance to get to visit with you two to exchange information on the Stricklands. It is so hard for me to find a free week-end so I can do research.
I have had to have my papers & books put away for a few months now- I had to put everything away when I had Company coming for the holidays and I haven't had time to get them out again (yet). I intend to do that next week-
I hope we can still get time to work a little on our Stricklands.
Will call you soon.
Good luck on yours.

Oddball, the cat, has taken two more chances at flirting with death since last week. So that leaves him only three lives out of nine. One of those chances he took in the engine of my car leaving him with a cut throat but yet active and about. What the future holds, time will tell.

After reading the following, you'll agree how true: A short, short story-Grandfather owned a farm, father had a garden, now son and daughter-in-law own a can opener.

Evervone should read "The Joy of Housekeeping," a book recently added to the Gillsburg Church Library, especially young married couples.

Our shut-ins include Mrs. Lillian Oswell, Beacham Hospital, Magnolia; Mr. Charlie Newman and James Blount

Mr. and Mrs. Dalton Williams, Jr., had as a guest last weekend Mrs. Williams' father, Mr. Pevey from Groves, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Carruth, Jr., were home for the weekend coming especially to be with Mrs. Carruth's mother, Mrs. Valarie Martin, who was having a birthday on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Carruth honored Mrs. Martin by taking her out to dinner. We all enjoyed the Christmas film made during the holidays of our trees, presents, and Christmas dinner.

The Harrell relatives attending the Greene-Chenevert wedding Friday night at the Lutheran Church in Alexandria followed by the reception held at the Bentley Hotel, the oldest with antique furnishings, were all overnight guests of their daughter and sister's family, the Ronnie Cheneverts, returning home

Biloxi native presents senior exhibit April 14-19

Teresa Rose Thompson will present her senior exhibit: "Through Hopeful Eyes" on April 14-19 at Eichold Gallery on the campus of Spring Hill College, 4000 Dauphin St., Mobile.

The opening reception will be Sunday, April 14, from 2 to 4 p.m. Artist talk will be at 2:30 p.m. Gallery hours are 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Thompson is a candidate for the bachelor of arts degree in Art Therapy. She was named 2001 Presidential Scholar for the Fine and Performing Arts Department and will be included in Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges. She plans to begin graduate studies in Art Therapy next fall.

Thompson is a member of the Alpha Sigma Nu Honor Society and Psi Chi Honor Society and has served as secretary of the Student Art League. She is a council member of SHC Campus Ministry and serves as the National JUSTICE Liaison. She also performs and serves as co-director of the Spring Hill Troubadours. She is a 1998 graduate of Mercy Cross High School.

She is the daughter of Teresa and Charles Thompson of Biloxi. Maternal grandparents are Theresa C. Lawrence of Biloxi and the late Anthony (Bay) Lawrence Sr. Paternal grandparents are Rosemary Thompson of New Orleans and the late Albert Lee Thompson, Jr.

The exhibit will include paintings, drawings, prints, silk screens, and ceramic pieces prepared by the artist. There is no admission charge and everyone is welcome to attend.

BILOXI — The Biloxi Community Center was charged with electricity Wednesday night, but there was nothing static about it.

The Ohr-O'Keefe Museum of Art benefactors had an advanced preview of the model of plans for the new museum to be built on U.S. 90 next to the Tullis-Toledano Manor.

"This is a 'Midsummer Night's Dream,' isn't it?" said the museum's Executive Director Marjorie Gowdy. "It will become a national landmark on the very day it opens."

The plans, designed by architect Frank Gehry, will include six themed areas. Gehry designed the new museum in a series of separate buildings to work with the live oak trees that are on the site.

The Cultural Center will welcome visitors, as well as house the bookstore, café, lecture hall and shoo-fly, an elevated open area of a building that is higher than the trees.

The Contemporary Art Gallery was designed with the "clean lines of the Biloxi shotgun house," and will have retractable skylights and a metal roof.

Model of new Ohr-O'Keefe Museum of Art

Public unveiling
What: Model for the new Ohr-O'Keefe Museum of Art.
When: 3 p.m. today.
Where: Biloxi Community Center, 591 Howard Ave.
Details: 374-5547.

One of the shotgun houses Gehry based his design on is the Pleasant Reed house, which also will be featured in the museum complex. The historic building, which will be fully renovated, will house an African-American interpretative center, in honor of Pleasant Reed, an African-American freedman who built the house in the late 1800s.

The centerpiece for the museum campus will be the George E. Ohr Gallery, a series of four stainless steel rooms connected by a glass courtyard.

Metal, brick and stucco will figure in the materials used to build the museum. The brick will be made to match the Tullis manor, and possibly will be made from material collected from the Tchoutacabouffa River area.

The site will include a Native American Meditation Garden.

The Education Building was designed as a "playful take" on Ohr's circa 1900 pagoda-studio in downtown Biloxi. The building also will house the museum's administrative offices and board room.

Also planned are an outdoor kiln and elevated vault, designed to protect museum pieces from flood damage in case of a hurricane.

The buildings are designed to withstand winds of up to 160 mph and will be built with the area's flood plain in mind.

THOMPSON } Mrs. William Hoover, Route 1, Sheridan, Ind. 46069 searches for her ggggrandparents in S.C. and their children. Ancestor JAMES THOMPSON was kidnapped by his half-sister and brought to America as a young boy. There were 8 James Thompson in 1790 census, 5 James Thomsons, also an Archibald Thomson. Papers she has seen spell the surname both ways.
James Thompson was said to have been born in Ireland, of royal descent. Brought to South Carolina, and was there prior to the Revolution. He had only one known son ARCHIBALD FERBIS THOMPSON. James' wife's name is unknown.
Archibald F. Thompson m. MARGARET CRAWFORD, whose parents were from Scotland. Their children:
Archibald Ferbis, Jr., b. 1783-4 S.C.
Margaret b. 12-24-1785 S.C.
William b. 7-1-1786 S.C.
son (name unknown)

Archibald Ferbis Thompson, Sr. served in the Revolution, and lived through it. In 1806 Margaret Crawford Thompson and family were in Shelby Co., Ky.

Archibald Ferbis Thompson, Jr. m. ?, and had the following children:
Elexander b. 1804 S.C.
James
daughter
In 1823 they, too, were in Shelby Co., Ky.
Other names connected with the Thompsons were: CRAWFORD, [illegible], SEYMORE, BOYD, LANE, McKINNEY.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Did the widow Margaret C. Thompson apply for and receive a Revolutionary Widow's Pension? Or did any member of the family apply for Bounty Land on the service of A.F.Thompson? Their applications if found in the National Archives, Washington, D.C., would provide first-hand accounts of the family as well as prove the father's military service.
Have you also searched the Stub Indents of South Carolina to see if you can find Thompson giving receipts for supplies, or receiving receipts for supplies or aid?
I have a Lane-McKinney line myself, but nowhere in my notes do I see your Thompson occurring. I also have a Thompson line, but it is not connected to the Lane-McKinneys till comparatively modern times, and it is in Virginia, with parties coming to Georgia 1791, not S.C.

Although she supports the Alabama team, she usually only attends about one game a year.

"We usually go to the Alabama-USM game because my husband graduated from Southern Miss," she said.

Her husband, John, retired from the Air Force and they settled here. He is in charge of the ROTC program at St. Martin High School.

The couple met when she went to Little Rock to visit her sister, whose husband at the time was stationed at the Air Force Base there. He and John were best friends.

"John had seen my picture at their house and wanted to meet me," she said. "I went up to visit my sister the summer before my freshman year at Alabama and they invited him over. We had a long-distance romance for two years."

During that time, he traveled to Alabama to see her and she spent the summers with her sister. The summer after her sophomore year, he proposed, so she didn't go back to school. In October, she went home to plan a December wedding.

During his Air Force career, they moved around the United States, but his only overseas duties were temporary assignments. His last tour was at Keesler. They retired here because he was originally from Ocean Springs. His parents, John and Josie Michaelis, still live here.

The couple has one son, Ryan, a student at Gulf Coast Community College, Jackson County campus.

OCEAN SPRINGS — A real people person, Cathy Thompson finds the common thread through most of the activities she enjoys involves interaction with others.

"I like to go out to lunch with friends, just get out and be around people," she said. "I stay on the go a lot."

Since her job as attendance clerk at Ocean Springs High School brings her into contact with an ever-changing assortment of kids, she enjoys that. She also likes being around the faculty and staff members who stop by her office to say hello. She has worked there for eight years and goes in three days a week, giving her time off to indulge in her love of getting out among other friends.

Singing is probably her favorite hobby. A member of both the praise team and the choir at First Baptist Church, she loves to sing church music, both the traditional hymns and the new choruses. She is also active in her Sunday school class at First Baptist.

Last year she stayed busy supervising the building of a new house. Now, though, all the boxes have been unpacked and all the money for decorations has been spent, so that project no longer consumes so much of her time.

An avid fan of Alabama football, she grew up in Birmingham, where her family followed the team. She attended her first two years of college there, but then she married an Air Force officer and moved to Lit-

"SORRY OLD BACHELOR" SENDS PRETTY WHITE SHOES TO QUINTUPLETS

Local Shoe Dealer Gets Pleasing Reply from the Dionne Family in Canada.

Jesse W. Thompson, and there is no bigger hearted man in the world, mindful of the fact that being a bachelor he has not carried out the Biblical injunction to take unto himself a wife and surround himself with a family of Little Thompsons, still feels it his duty and finds it also a pleasure to help out those who are more blessed in that respect than he.

One of his recent acts of kindness was the sending to Mrs. Dionne, in Canada, the mother of the famous quintuplets whose birth and progress from day to day have had front page places in the newspapers, five pairs of little white shoes to be fitted on the tiny feet of the five little girl babies when they get large enough to wear the shoes.

Jesse wrote to Mr. and Mrs. Dionne in part as follows: "It is with a great deal of pleasure and interest that I have been following the lives of those dainty, darling quintuplets, and I want to congratulate you most heartily. In token of my admiration for you and them I am sending herewith five pairs of little white "Poll Parrot" shoes, the smallest I could buy, which I will thank you to accept and use when the little darlings get big enough. I am a sorry old bachelor, in the shoe business, and wish that you lived in our town so I could furnish the shoes for the little folks for a long, long time to come."

Mr. Thompson received the following reply from the Dionne famly: "We thank you very much for the pretty little shoes. It is going to be fun to dress the babies up when they get big enough. * * * The babies are doing fine. Sincerely, The Dionne Family." Dated Callander, Ontario, June 29, 1934.

No man who makes as good a citizen as Jesse Thompson is can be properly called "a sorry old bachelor," and here's hoping that some good woman will take Jesse for better or worse before he gets too old and sorry, and that some day he may have little ones of his own for whom to buy little white shoes.

Cake Walk

Tomorrow, the band will have a cake walk on the vacant lot between Henkle's 5 and 10 cent store and the firemen's hall.

The cakes will be homemade, baked by the band mothers, so all of you who like old-fashioned cakes and pies be sure to come out and participate in this walk. There will be band music, and besides that, plenty of fun.

This is how it is done in case some of you have never tried it. You buy a ticket at an unusually low price (especially if you win a cake) and then march in a circle on blocks that are numbered. If you happen to be standing on the block with the lucky number when the music stops you win one of those delicious cakes like mother always

News From Fifth and Sixth Grade Under Supervision of Mrs. O. K. Weisenberg

FIFTH GRADE SCIENCE

The pupils of the fifth grade are studying insects. We watched a spider spin her nest. Now we are waiting for the eggs to hatch. We learned that insects destroy more than animals. The Boll Weevil destroys millions of dollars worth of cotton. We like the class and we are going to try to have it all the year.

Billy Ray Jones.

EXPERIMENTS IN OUR ROOM

We are experimenting in our room. We have a sweet potato in some water with roots growing on it. We are, also, growing corn without soil. We have a blotter in a glass and grains of corn between the blotter and the glass. In the center we have saw dust which we dampen every morning.

RONARD BYRD.

NEW DRINKING FOUNTAIN

Our school is so crowded that we did not have enough water fountains. Miss Kell, our principal, is having four new fountains put in. Two are in the front and two in the back.

BOY'S CHOIR

A boy's choir of forty-three boys started last week in the Pascagoula Elementary school. The ages are from six to ten. They will go many places to sing. Miss Kell is business manager, Miss Horn is accompanist, and Mr. Parker is conductor. They will meet on Mondays from 2:45 to 3:15, and on Thursdays from 8:00 to 9:00.

The Wedding of the Month

On the twenty-first of October at four o'clock, Miss Ernestine Deas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Deas of West Point, Mississippi, and Dr. P. A. Thompson of Citronelle, Alabama, were married.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by Reverend Kelly Unger at Miss Deas' home.

In the living room, a white covered platform provided a stage for the wedding. Banked ferns and white chysanthemums, complimented by white candles in standards, formed a background.

The bride, given away by her father, was attractively gowned in a blue costume suit, trimmed in brown squirrel, a blue hat with a brown veil, and brown accessories.

The Matron of Honor was Mrs. Frank Strong, the brides's sister, who was dressed in a brown costume suit with brown accessories.

Mr. Nevin Lucas served as best man.

Following the ceremony, there was a small reception for friends and relatives, after which the couple left for a week's honeymoon along the Florida coast.

The P. H. S. Camera Club has been re-organized under the sponsorship of Principal V. C. Gill with the following officers: Harry Parsley, president; Hilliard Slater, vice-president; Ouida Mae Pugh, secretary and treasurer; and Nell Hudson, reporter.

At the first meeting the following laws were adopted:

1. During the period assigned to you to work in the darkroom go directly there and stay there until the end of the period.

2. Any member found leaving the darkroom in a messed-up condition will be suspended for one week for the first violation. For the second violation, member will be permanently suspended.

3. Each member must expose, develop, and print at least one roll of film per month.

4. Any member doing or causing damage to the darkroom or equipment will be required to replace or repair any damaged article.

5. Any member found loafing in the darkroom will be permanently withdrawn from the role.

6. Each member will be allowed to go to the dark room once a week and a meeting of the club will be held every two weeks.

7. No students other than members of the club will be allowed in the darkroom.

8. Any member found printing, or developing disreputable pictures will be permanently suspended and turned over to the teacher in charge for further punishment.

9. Any member missing two meetings in succession without a reasonable excuse will be permanently suspended.

10. The door to the darkroom, at no time is to be locked from the inside.

With the help of the officers of the club, the darkroom has been put in first class condition and reg-

A wedding of much interest to their many friends was solemnized at the Baptist Pastorium in Moss Point on Saturday evening, April 18th, at eight o'clock, when Miss Barbara Werner of Long Beach and Moss Point was happily united in marriage to Chester O. Thompson, Jr., Rev. J. F. Brook performing the single ring ceremony.

The bride was very attractively dressed in a gold and white printed chiffon with brown and white accessories and carried an arm bouquet of talisman roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Agnes Werner, who was becomingly dressed in a powder blue sheer with navy accessories and carried an arm bouquet of white roses.

The groom had as his best man Mr. Jimmie Johnson.

Mrs. Thompson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Werner of Long Beach, Miss., and has made her home in this city, while being associated with her sister in the Moss Point Beauty Parlor.

Mr. Thompson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester O. Thompson of Buffalo, N. Y., and at present is stationed at Brookley Field, Ala.

The above announcement will be received with a great deal of interest owing to the popularity of the young couple, whose friends are rejoicing that they will continue making their home in our midst. 4-

Thompson's passing mourned

■ Retired Pas dentist was well-known civic leader

By DAN DAVIS
Mississippi Press Staff

PASCAGOULA — Dr. Perry Thompson, 91, a prominent retired dentist and longtime civic leader, died Saturday at his home.

Dr. Thompson was hailed by family and friends as a devoted family man who raised six children after his wife, Ernestine, died in 1959.

He was honored in April 2000 when the American Red Cross building on Jackson Avenue was named in his honor.

Thompson

Thompson was active in the American Red Cross in the past and served on its board of directors for two years.

He was also well known for not missing a Rotary Club meeting for 61 years, one of the longest strings in the organization's history. Earlier this year, when he had to be hospitalized, a group of Pascagoula Rotary Club officers and members convened a meeting at Singing River Hospital to help him keep the string intact.

U.S. Sen. Trent Lott, Dr. Thompson's son-in-law, said Saturday, "He was one of a kind; a great guy and a great father.

"If there is a Rotary Club in heaven, he'll be there."

Funeral arrangements are pending at O'Bryant-O'Keefe Funeral Home. In lieu of flowers, the family asks that contributions be made to First Presbyterian Church where Dr. Thompson was a longtime member and had served as a deacon and elder.

He is survived by daughters, Patricia Elizabeth Lott of Washington, Diane Scruggs of Pascagoula and Libby Watson of Pascagoula; sons, Perry A. Thompson Jr. of Pascagoula, David Allen Thompson of Shreveport, La., and Leslie Glenn Thompson of Pascagoula.

Also surviving him are grandchildren, Chet Lott of Lexington, Ky., Tyler Lott Armstrong of Jackson, Miss., Zach Scruggs of Jackson, Miss., Claire Scruggs, of Pascagoula, Jenny Gold of Houston, Texas, Lisa Oney of Pineville, La., Ryan Thompson of Shreveport, La., and Hannah Thompson of Pascagoula. Great-grandchildren include Trent Lott III and Lucie Lott, both of Lexington, Ky., and Shields Armstrong of Jackson, Miss.

Dr. Thompson was born in Vinegar Bend, Ala., and reared in Cintronelle, Ala. He moved to Pascagoula in 1939 after finishing Atlanta Southern Dental College, now Emory University.

"I knew the shipyard was coming to Pascagoula and there wasn't but about 5,000 people living here then," he said in an April 2000 interview with The Mississippi Press.

"I was the third dentist to move here. I thought Pascagoula would be a good place to come and I've had a good life here, a happy life. People have been good to me through the years."

Thompson said the greatest tragedy of his life was the death of his wife, Ernestine, the home economics teacher he met and fell in love with in 1940. The couple married in 1941 and had six children together before her death in 1959.

"Patricia, the oldest, was 13 at the time and Libby, the youngest, was 5. When my wife died, I moved my dental practice from above Wiggins Drug Store in the downtown area to Market Street," Thompson said.

The family lived at the corner of Market Street and Jackson Avenue, so Thompson could walk across the yard to keep a check on his family.

"That was the only way I had of keeping in touch with them," he said. "I really don't know how I juggled raising six kids and my career. But they all turned out so wonderful. I'm very proud of all of them."

After 40 years of practicing dentistry, Thompson retired in 1979.

WIDOW OF JURIST DIES

Mrs. Thorington Succumbs At Residence Of Daughter Sunday

Mrs. Willelia Chilton Thorington, widow of Judge W. S. Thorington, died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. C. K. Powell, at 12:20 a. m. Sunday.

She is survived by Dr. T. C. Thorington, Montgomery; W. M. Thorington and Mrs. P. M. Boykin, of Taft, Texas; Mrs. W. R. Pronty, Chapel Hill, N. C.; and Mrs. C. K. Powell of Mobile. Funeral services will be held from the residence of Dr. Thorington, in Montgomery, with interment following in Oakwood cemetery.

Son Born To Mr. And Mrs. Geo. Thompson At Hospital Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. George Thompson are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son to them Sunday, Jan. 30, 1944, at the Jackson County hospital.

He has been named William George in honor of his maternal grandfather, William T. Sparkman, and his father and paternal grandfather, George Thompson.

As Miss Alice Sparkman, Mrs. Thompson has long been prominent in educational circles in Pascagoula, having taught English in the high school for a number of years. Feb 4 1944

Dr. Perry Thompson, 92, of Pascagoula has been with the Pascagoula Rotary Club for almost 62 years without missing a meeting.

But last week, his perfect attendance record was in jeopardy when he was hospitalized.

But some of the club officers went to Singing River Hospital, found Dr. Thompson in the intensive care unit and convened a recessed meeting. His record remains intact.

Pascagoula sailor remembered for friendly smile

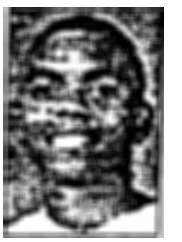
By AMBER CRAIG
The Mississippi Press

PASCAGOULA — A Pascagoula sailor who died this weekend from an injury sustained while at sea off the coast of Florida was "always smiling and always happy," former teachers said Tuesday.

The U.S. Navy reported this week that 24-year-old Petty Officer 3rd Class George Earl Thompson Jr. died after sustaining a head injury aboard the Norfolk-based carrier USS Theodore Roosevelt. Thompson was taken by helicopter to a Jacksonville hospital, and was pronounced dead shortly after arrival.

The ship hit heavy seas Saturday while it was conducting routine operations off the coast near Jacksonville, Fla., the Navy reported.

Thompson joined the Navy in June 2004 and reported to the Roosevelt in October 2004.



Thompson

Teachers remembered Thompson, a 2002 graduate of Pascagoula High School, as a polite, hard-working young man with a good sense of humor and an ever-present smile.

Ricky Merrill, who taught Thompson algebra as a sophomore, said Thompson had a "good disposition" no matter where he was or what he was doing.

"I know that he was very well-mannered," Merrill said. "It was always 'Yes, sir' 'No, sir' with George — even when you would see him outside of class.

"That's not the way you would see him just in the classroom. He was like that all the time, always smiling and happy."

Thompson's former NJROTC instructor said he didn't know that his former student had joined the military, but was sure "he did his very best in all that he did."

"I knew George very well. He was in my class in NJROTC and he loved to play basketball and shoot air rifles," Arthur Reynolds Jr. said. "You could see George at the Cadet Ball and he loved marching in parades. His favorite was the Christmas parade. George was well liked, and he stood for what was right."

Communications teacher Mary Ellen Green said Thompson was a "quiet young man with a good sense of humor. He was a good student, kind to others and always smiled."

Thompson as the kind of student any teacher wanted to have, Merrill said.

"He wasn't a trouble-maker, but he was just fun to have around," Merrill said.

Funeral arrangements at Millender's Funeral Home in Moss Point were incomplete Tuesday.

Pas sailor dies from injury at sea

NORFOLK, Va. (AP) — The Navy has released the name of the sailor aboard the Norfolk-based carrier USS Theodore Roosevelt who died from a head injury when the ship hit heavy seas off the Florida coast.

The Navy said 24-year-old Petty Officer 3rd Class George Earl Thompson Jr. was from Pascagoula. He joined the Navy in June 2004 and reported to the Roosevelt in October 2004.

The Navy said the ship was conducting routine operations off the coast of Jacksonville Saturday when the weather took a rapid turn for the worse, but no other details of the accident were released.

Thompson was taken by helicopter to a Jacksonville hospital, and was pronounced dead shortly after arriving there.

The Navy is investigating the incident.

Lawyer, 82, still practices law

By JACKIE BYRD
Press Register Reporter

BAY MINETTE, Ala. — To say that C. Lenoir Thompson is a colorful individual would be an understatement. The Bay Minette attorney, at age 82, is the oldest practicing member of the Baldwin County Bar in the 28th Judicial Court Circuit which he was instrumental in creating.

Charles Lenoir, that was my grandfather's name," Thompson said. A native of Escambia County, Ala., Thompson said he grew up in Perdido in Baldwin County and received his law degree from Jones Law School in Montgomery.

Early in his career, Thompson took a legal case that spanned years and touched thousands of lives. What began as a case of children being mistreated, he said, ended years later with the Creek Indian Nation East of the Mississippi winning the federal recognition.

According to Thompson, Indian children in Escambia County "had to get to school the best way they could" because they weren't allowed to ride public school buses. The late Creek Indian Chief Calvin McGhee and others of the tribe asked Thompson to help them in the matter, he said, estimating that the case began in 1948 or '49.

Current Tribal Chief Eddie Tullis said the children were actually being transported to far-away Huxford school and denied the opportunity to attend classes at the closer campus in Atmore.

Thompson led the case that eventually won a $10 million-plus settlement for Creek Indians nationwide. The federal government deducted costs of the War of 1812 from the payment, Tullis said, with $4.7 million actually distributed in 1971.

The initial case alone lasted eight years, Thompson said, and began the chain of events that eventually led to the Indian tribe winning recognition of a separate sovereign nation within the United States.

"We were able to get them identified," Thompson said of the Indians who are descendants of warriors who fought in the bloody Indian War of the early 1800s. The descendants had to sign up and prove their lineage, which in some cases was difficult to do, Thompson said.

Bay Minette attorney C. Lenior Thompson is known for many things, including his piled-high desk which he says includes papers dating back to the 60s. Thompson this year was recognized for 50 years' active practice before the state bar.

Study of archives in Washington, D.C., had come to a standstill in the case because no mention of the Creeks was made in the Treaty of Ghent that settled the War of 1812, Thompson said.

"Finally I was shown by an anonymous woman a two-inch file containing a letter from President James Madison to the chief archivist instructing him to destroy any paper connected to the Treaty of Ghent concerning the Creek Nation of Indians," Thompson recalled recently. That was the turning point in the case, Thompson said, stating he had suspected former U.S. officials of "trying to keep the Creeks from getting what they deserved."

Referring to the Aug., 1813 massacre of white settlers at Fort Mims that left more than 500 dead in the north Baldwin County area, the lawyer said "the Creeks were being punished for that."

The long road to completion of the case did bring a memorable lunch meeting with then-President, the late Dwight D. Eisenhower and the late U.S. Senator Lister Hill, Thompson said.

"We discussed it over lunch," Thompson said of the case which also included contact with the British ambassador in Washington, the U.S. Indian Claims Commission which heard the initial case and the nation's Supreme Court.

"I set out to get transportation, then set out for a school. They built a school and they provided all the bus transportation they (the Indians) needed," Thompson said.

Thompson was recognized earlier this year by the Alabama State Bar for 50 years of honorable, devoted and dedicated service.

The greatest honor of his life-time, Thompson said, was when he was unanimously chosen by 24 organization representatives to be Bay Minette's "Man of the Year" in 1986.

A more recent honor, he said, was his marriage in past weeks to a woman who helped care for his late wife Margaret and whom he since became fond of, he said. The new Mrs. Thompson's three children "have adopted me," Thompson said with glistening eyes, "and make the difference between a house and a home."

Mr. George Earl Thompson Jr., born on May 14, 1983, was the third child born to George Thompson Sr. and Gwendolyn Gildersleeve Thompson in Pascagoula, Miss. George passed away on Saturday, March 8, 2008.

At an early age, George was christened at St. Stephen United Methodist Church in Gautier, Miss., and was very active in Sunday School and all youth activities. He graduated from Beach Elementary in Pascagoula and Pascagoula High School. George attended MGCCC in Gautier, Miss., majoring in electronics. Afterwards, he enlisted in the United States Navy, where he received several awards for excellence. George held the rank of E4 Petty Officer 3rd Class and was aboard the USS Theodore Roosevelt located at N.O.B. in Norfolk, Va.

George is preceded in death by his grandparents, Edna Bilbo Gildersleeve, Herman and Naomi Thompson, and his aunt, Antoinette Gildersleeve. Left with fondest memories: his parents, George and Gwendolyn Thompson, of Pascagoula, Miss.; his daughter, Gabrielle Thompson, of Norfolk, Va.; three sisters, Chavonda Thompson, of Knoxville, Tenn., Alishia (Ahmad) Leverette, of Knoxville, Tenn., and Evelyn Thompson, of Escatawpa, Miss.; and his grandfather, Gilbert (Pearlene) Gildersleeve Sr., of Pascagoula, Miss.

Other relatives, including numerous aunts, uncles, cousins and friends are left with fondest memories of George Earl Thompson Jr.

His memories will be shared by his niece and nephews, Aniyah, Xavier and Jonathan; his godparents, Charlotte Barial, of Gautier, Miss., and Samuel Moore, of Pascagoula, Miss.; and a dedicated friend, Chaquanda Quattlebaum, Williams, of Norfolk, Va.

Visitation will be held at Sacred Heart Catholic Church from 9 to 10:45 a.m. Tuesday, March 18 with service starting at 11 a.m. at 3702 Quinn St., Pascagoula.

Interment will be in St. Peters Cemetery, Pascagoula, Miss.

All arrangements by Millender's Funeral Home, Moss Point. View obituary and sign the registry online at www.millenders.com.

MRS. MARY E. THOMPSON.

The city of Moss Point is in mourning on account of the death of Mrs. Mary E. Thompson, wife of the late Dr. W. R. Thompson, who died at her home here at 1:30 a. m. Friday, morning, January 9. Mrs. Thompson was born in Midway, Ala., on November 11, 1851, and was in her ninetieth year.

She was married to the late Dr. Thompson on March 29, 1876, her maiden name being Mary E. Colman. Two children survive her, Jesse W. Thompson and Miss Ina Thompson, both of Moss Point. Three sisters and two brothers survive her: Mrs. Zula Johnson, Birmingham; Mrs. B. T. Douglas and Miss Thapis Smith, Troy, Ala.; Dr. L. W. Smith, Hot Springs, Ark.; W. T. Smith, Craig, Colo., and many other relatives.

Mrs. Thompson was a faithful member of the Methodist church, and until her recent illness did not miss Sunday school in 20 years. She was the organist for 25 years in the local church, as well as organist for many years in the church in Brewton, Ala. Dr. and Mrs. Thompson moved from Brewton to Moss Point 35 years ago. In the Brewton church are two memorial windows presented by her and her Sunday school class.

Dr. and Mrs. Thompson celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary on March 29, 1926, and the church here presented her at that time with a silver loving cup in appreciation for her faithful work. She was a charter member of the Woman's Missionary Society organized in Hazlehurst, Miss. in 1876.

Mrs. Thompson had been in ill health and an invalid for the past 14 months, and in bad health for some time prior to that time, but was never complaining, and always patient and sweet. Up to the time of her illness, she spent a great part of her time going about and visiting and nursing the sick, especially among the poorer people. She was an exceptional woman, and "Truly none knew her, but to love her." The whole city is in mourning over the loss of this kind woman, who spent her life in the service of others.

The funeral will be held from the Thompson home, at 2 o'clock tomorrow, Saturday, January 10. In the absence of a Methodist pastor, Rev. J. F. Brock of the Baptist church, Rev. B. A. Meeks of the Presbyterian church and Rev. H. D. Haughton of the Kreole Methodist church will conduct the services. Interment in Machpelah cemetery.

The Advertiser joins with the entire community in expressing heartfelt condolence to the family on the passing from this earth of a noble mother and sister.

Weather service figures at Jackson's Thompson Field show it would require almost 2½ inches of rain by Wednesday to bring the yearly total up to the normal of 52.31 inches.

The slightly below normal rainfall in 1986 isn't a major concern, Knight said, "when you consider in 1979 we broke the record" with 20 inches above normal.

January was the driest since the weather service began keeping records in 1896, logging three-quarters of an inch of rain.

THOMPSON

Dr. James Thomas Thompson, 92, of Moss Point, Miss., died March 1, 1997 in Pascagoula. He was born November 5, 1904. Dr. Thompson was a resident of Moss Point for 45 years and was one of the original physicians to practice in the Pas-Point area. He was past President of the MS STATE MEDICAL ASSOC., YMBC Outstanding Citizen for 1979, BPWO Outstanding Citizen of 1963, member of the Moss Point Rotary Club, past President and member of the Singing River Hospital Board of Trustee. He was a member of First Baptist Church of Moss Point and served as a deacon and trustee for many years. He was preceded in death by Mrs. Elizabeth Thompson.

Survivors include one sister, Mr. Doris Bobo, Jackson, Miss.; one brother, Roy Thompson, Houlka, Miss.; three nieces, Anne Dean, Ocean Springs, Diane Walker, Gulfport, and Sally Burke, Tellico Plains, Tenn.; three nephews, Frank Thompson, Michigan, Dr. William Thompson, Jackson, Miss., and Dr. Robert Bobo, Memphis, Tenn.; one great-niece, Betsy Bingham, Moss Point; and one great-nephew, Dr. James Allen, Gulfport.

In lieu of flowers the family wishes donations be made to the First Baptist Church of Moss Point.

Arrangements by Holder-Wells Funeral Home, Moss Point, Miss.

MRS. MARY E. THOMPSON.

The city of Moss Point is in mourning on account of the death of Mrs. Mary E. Thompson, wife of the late Dr. W. R. Thompson, who died at her home here at 1:30 a. m., Friday morning, January 9. Mrs. Thompson was born in Midway, Ala., on November 11, 1851, and was in her nintieth year.

She was married to the late Dr. Thompson on March 29, 1876, her maiden name being Mary E. Colman. Two children survive her, Jesse W. Thompson and Miss Ina Thompson, both of Moss Point. Three sisters and two brothers survive her, Mrs. Zula Johnson, Birmingham; Mrs. B. I. Douglas and Miss Timpie Smith, Troy, Ala.; Dr. L. W. Smith, Hot Springs, Ark.; W. T. Smith, Craig, Colo., and many other relatives.

Mrs. Thompson was a faithful member of the Methodist church, and until her recent illness did not miss Sunday school in 20 years. She was the organist for 25 years in the local church, as well as organist for many years in the church in Brewton, Ala. Dr. and Mrs. Thompson moved from Brewton to Moss Point 35 years ago. In the Brewton church are two memorial windows presented by her and her Sunday school class.

Dr. and Mrs. Thompson celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary on March 29, 1926, and the church here presented her at that time with a silver loving cup in appreciation for her faithful work. She was a charter membr of the Woman's Missionary Society organized in Hazlehurst, Miss. in 1876.

Mrs. Thompson had been in ill health and an invalid for the past 14 months, and in bad health for some time prior to that time, but was never complaining, and always patient and sweet. Up to the time of her illness, she spent a great part of her time going about and visiting and nursing the sick, especially among the poorer people. She was an exceptional woman, and "Truly none knew her, but to love her." The whole city is in mourning over the loss of this kind woman, who spent her life in the service of others.

The funeral will be held from the Thompson home, at 2 o'clock tomorrow, Saturday, January 10. In the absence of a Methodist pastor, Rev. J. F. Brock of the Baptist church, Rev. B. A. Meeks of the Presbyterian church and Rev. H. D. Haughton of the Kreole Methodist church will conduct the services. Interment in Machpelah cemetery.

The Advertiser joins with the entire community in expressing heartfelt condolence to the family on the passing from this earth of a noble mother and sister.

DR. W. R. THOMPSON.

This old and respected citizen of Jackson county died at his home in Moss Point on Wednesday night, November 13, 1929, at 9:30 o'clock, after an illness of only a short while, although he had been in failing health for some months. The funeral was held from the family residence on Main street Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, Rev. J. M. Corley, pastor of the Methodist church performing the last sad offices, assisted by Dr. O. H. Welch of Mobile, an old friend of deceased, and Rev. J. F. Brock, pastor of the Baptist church. Interment was in Machpelah cemetery, with the following pall bearers: John D. Lowe, W. M. Alexander, Lamar Herrin, Dr. Colle, Fred Taylor and K. W. Burnham. A large number of friends followed the remains to the grave, and a wealth of handsome floral offerings made the last resting place a bower of beauty and fragrance.

Dr. Walter R. Thompson was 79 years of age. He was born in Hinds county, near Cooper's Wells, Miss., on March 22, 1850. His early manhood was spent in Hazlehurst, Miss., where he taught school for several years, being principal of the city schools. He was married on March 29, 1876, to Miss Mary E. Coleman at Midway, Ala. He graduated in medicine in 1891, and began the practice in Brewton, Ala., moving to Moss Point in 1895, and lived there until the time of his death.

Dr. Thompson was elected Justice of the Peace in 1914, and held the office until the beginning of this year, when he resigned on account of ill health. For the past several months his health has gradually been getting worse.

On March 29, 1926, Dr. and Mrs. Thompson celebrated their golden wedding anniversary, many friends from all over the county calling at the home and paying their respects to this aged and worthy couple. Mrs. Thompson, at that time, in spite of her advanced years, was organist in the big Methodist church at Moss Point, the members of which presented her with a beautiful loving cup in honor of the event.

Dr. Thompson is survived by his widow and two children, Jesse W. Thompson and Miss Ina Thompson; and two sisters, Mrs. Alice Fatheree of Jackson, and Mrs. Cora Grandberry of Wesson, Miss., besides numerous relatives in other sections.

Thus Moss Point and Jackson county lose one of their oldest citizens, a man who has led a useful life and an upright and honorable one. May his soul rest in peace and may his bereaved ones have consolation in the memory of a life well spent here on earth and the certainty of its eternal reward, as well as the genuine sympathies of many friends and acquaintances.

House gets homestead legislation

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — The House Ways and Means Committee received a bill today to limit homestead exemption expenditures and give complete exemptions to those over 65.

Rep. Stone Barefield of Hattiesburg offered the bill, which would limit expenses to $22 million yearly.

Other new measures were by: Rep. Ben Owen of Columbus, to require the state Senate to decide in five days whether to confirm gubernatorial appointments submitted for Senate consent.

Sen. Nap Cassibry of Gulfport, to require medical personnel to report wounds or injuries arising from violent means.

Sen. Teho Smith of Corinth, to authorize the Board of Health to provide family planning information and supplies.

Sen. Ken Robertson of Pascagoula, to ratify the 26th amendment to the federal constitution, which enfranchises those 18 years old and over.

Rep. Barefield, to provide that county redistricting plans may not become final until sub-

Burglars hit Pas s

The burglary of a Pascagoula music store is under investigation by Pascagoula police today.

According to Ralph Lamar Severance, manager of the Mississippi Music Company, Bel Air Shopping Center, two guitars were stolen.

The crime was discovered by Patrolman Pete Martin, who found the plate glass window of the store broken out Wednesday night while on routine patrol.

Martin summoned Detective S. H. Ezell and A. G. Willis, investigator with the detective division, and also contacted Severance.

According to the detective's report, the window was apparently broken out with some type of steel instrument, such as a tire tool. The officers do not believe the burglars gained entrance to the building; reports said it seemed only the window was broken and the guitars taken.

Woman Is Hurt As Cars Crash On Highway 63

One person was slightly injured in a traffic accident Sunday on Highway 63 at the Mississippi Export Railroad crossing just east of the Pascagoula city limits, county highway patrolman Harold Jones said today.

Suffering cuts and lacerations of the face and legs was Mrs. Bobbie Nell Moffett, 24, 1413 19th Street, Pascagoula, Jones said.

The accident occurred about 5:45 p.m. A southbound car operated by Paul Lee Jones, 1031 Kenneth, Pascagoula had stopped at the intersection for the crossing of a MR train.

The car driven by Mrs. Moffett struck the halted vehicle from the rear, Jones said.

In the car with Mrs. Moffett was her husband, Earl, and their five-year-old daughter, Cynthia Kay. Both were thrown against the windshield by the impact but were not injured, Jones said.

Jones swerved his car to the left and avoided being thrown against the crossing train, he added.

No charges were filed.

J. W. Thompson Last Rites Held At Point Sunday

Jesse W. Thompson, well known Moss Point resident, died at 4:45 a.m. Saturday at his home, 903 Main Street, after a long illness.

Thompson was engaged in the lumber and timber business before his retirement some years ago and was active in the social, civic and religious life of the community.

He served as mayor in 1917-18. He was a lifelong member of the Methodist Church and was a former officer in the Sunday school.

For more than 30 years, he served as a member of the board of stewards. He was president of the Moss Point Rotary Club in 1935-36.

A native of Hazelhurst, he moved with his family to Moss Point in 1895 where his father the late W. R. Thompson, practiced medicine for many years and after retirement was justice of the peace.

Thompson and his only surviving close relative, his sister, Miss Ina Thompson, made their home together.

Other relatives are an uncle, Walter F. Smith, Ft. Smith, Ark., Mr. and Mrs. O. W. L. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm McMillan, Brewton, and US Cong. and Mrs. Kenneth Robertson of Washington, D. C. and Andalusia, Ala.

Funeral services were conducted at the Methodist Church Sunday at 2 p.m. by the pastor, Dr. M. L. Smith, assisted by the Rev. Frank E. Dement, Jr., pastor of the Pascagoula Methodist Church, and the Rev. J. H. Dillard, pastor of the Krenie Methodist Church. Burial was in Mathpelah Cemetery.

Pall bearers were E. D. Mayo, C. E. Price, W. G. Stewart, O. L. Latil of Ocean Springs, Howard Gibbs, Spring Hill, Ala. and Mr. McMillan, Brewton, Ala.

THOMPSON, MARY E

MRS. MARY E. THOMPSON.

The city of Moss Point is in mourning on account of the death of Mrs. Mary E. Thompson, wife of the late Dr. W. R. Thompson, who died at her home here at 1:30 a. m., Friday morning, January 9. Mrs. Thompson was born in Midway, Ala., on November 11, 1851, and was in her nintieth year.

She was married to the late Dr. Thompson on March 29, 1876, her maiden name being Mary E. Colman. Two children survive her, Jesse W. Thompson and Miss Ina Thompson, both of Moss Point. Three sisters and two brothers survive her, Mrs. Zula Johnson, Birmingham; Mrs. B. I. Douglas and Miss Timpie Smith, Troy, Ala.; Dr. L. W. Smith, Hot Springs, Ark.; W. T. Smith, Craig, Colo., and many other relatives.

Mrs. Thompson was a faithful member of the Methodist church, and until her recent illness did not miss Sunday school in 20 years. She was the organist for 25 years in the local church, as well as organist for many years in the church in Brewton, Ala. Dr. and Mrs. Thompson moved from Brewton to Moss Point 35 years ago. In the Brewton church are two memorial windows presented by her and her Sunday school class.

Dr. and Mrs. Thompson celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary on March 29, 1926, and the church here presented her at that time with a silver loving cup in appreciation for her faithful work. She was a charter member of the Woman's Missionary Society organized in Hazlehurst, Miss. in 1876.

Mrs. Thompson had been in ill health and an invalid for the past 14 months, and in bad health for some time prior to that time, but was never complaining, and always patient and sweet. Up to the time of her illness, she spent a great part of her time going about and visiting and nursing the sick, especially among the poorer people. She was an exceptional woman, and "Truly none knew her, but to love her." The whole city is in mourning over the loss of this kind woman, who spent her life in the service of others.

The funeral will be held from the Thompson home, at 2 o'clock tomorrow, Saturday, January 10. In the absence of a Methodist pastor, Rev. J. F. Brock of the Baptist church, Rev. B. A. Meeks of the Presbyterian church and Rev. H. D. Haughton of the Kreole Methodist church will conduct the services. Interment in Machpelah cemetery.

The Advertiser joins with the entire community in expressing heartfelt condolence to the family on the passing from this earth of a noble mother and sister.

TOP ROW: Scruggs and Fortenberry hung garlands at the Longfellow House and placed Christmas trees in each of the dormer windows. Silver vases hold a snowy palette of freesia, tulips, roses, lilies, and star-of-Bethlehem. BOTTOM ROW: Roses nestled in a pearl-beaded bag complement the table's greenery. Guests are given small cakes inside boxes inscribed with holiday wishes from Scruggs. Kim Arnold, Cindy Fortenberry, and Jean Boles, who helped plan the party, enjoy the fruits of their labor.

receptions and parties instead. Last year they donated the house to the University of Mississippi Foundation with the express desire "to get the house used and appreciated," Scruggs says; Fortenberry serves as curator for the historic home.

After years of restoration, the three-story, Greek Revival mansion was back to its original 1850s feel, providing a stately setting for Scruggs and Fortenberry's first ladies-only gala. Now they've refined their holiday visions even more. "We try to do something different in every room, but keep it true to the house's period," Fortenberry says.

This evening's mood is true gold, no matter which direction guests wander. In one room, three gold and silver papier-mâché wise men perch on the mantel between two mossed topiaries topped with peacock feathers. The food table, enveloped in sheer gold fabrics, holds silver antique trumpet vases filled with calla lilies, tulips, freesia, and roses.

Another room sparkles in white and gold. Wrapped in white lights, a 12-foot noble fir, topped with a gold silk–dressed angel, presides over white gardenias and magnolia blossoms in candelabra on the mantel. Antique lace tablecloths cover a round table featuring a four-tiered cake—each layer a different flavor—with fondant icing and applied gold fruit, created by the Pastry Shop in Mobile, Alabama. Aside from the lavish cake, Scruggs prefers minimal, finger-type foods that don't take away from the décor, but rather complement the ornaments and the flowers.

Upstairs, the two have created the "children's room," a bedroom bedecked with gingerbread houses, nutcrackers, and lifelike German porcelain dolls wearing dresses that Scruggs' daughter, Claire, once wore.

Scruggs brought many of the party furnishings—trays, goblets, and lace tablecloths—from her home. But she and Fortenberry also bought many of the decorations on shopping trips in New York. "What we were looking for with this party was lace, elegance, the silver, the crystal, so when you walked in, you would just feel like you were transported," says Scruggs.

As guests leave, Scruggs presents each one with a tiny cake inside a white box tied with a gold ribbon. "Everyone walks away with a little memento," Scruggs says—as if any were needed to evoke memories of such a splendid evening. ♦

Ladies' Night Out

Diane Scruggs rings in the holiday season with a lavish ladies-only celebration in a historic Pascagoula, Mississippi, home

by Victoria H. Lee  Photographs by Howard L. Puckett

When Hurricane Georges hit Mississippi's Gulf Coast in 1998, the holid season rolled in with understandably less cheer. Pascagoula native Diar Scruggs knew that the town's spirits needed lifting, so she and longtime frier and designer Cindy Fortenberry decided to throw a party.

With the majestic Longfellow House as the setting, their ladies-only eve would usher in the season in a big way. And it would lead to successive mem orable holiday soirees, each inspired by the same motive: "We just wanted t create a fantasyland for everyone, and with Cindy's talents and the beautifi house we were able to pull that off rather easily, actually," says Scruggs.

The Longfellow House, built in 1850, passed hands numerous time throughout the years, finally becoming a country club, which Scruggs' famil belonged to when she was a child. "We spent every day in the summer there she says. In 1993, Scruggs and her husband, attorney Dick Scruggs, boug the then-declining house. They considered living there but decided to use it fc

Thompson Family

LEDGER BICENTENNIAL FEATURE

Host of descendants trace to Thompsons

One old area family whose descendants are numerous in this area although the family name itself has dwindled is that of Jeremiah Thompson and his brother, William Thompson.

Jeremiah Thompson lies buried on the east side of Tangipahoa River in the location approximately due east of the A&P Milk Bottling Plant.

Through marriages into McDaniels, Varnadoes, and others, a host of people are descendants of these early settlers. A group of Thompsons of the Amite area are direct descendants.

The Kendrick connection referred to connects with the Flukers and the Kents. The late Mrs. Amos Kent was the former Susan Fluker and her mother was a Kendrick. Bricks in the sidewalks at Asphodel Plantation show plainly they are Kent bricks.

Mr. James W. Thompson, the compiler, was born at Winona, Mississippi, graduated from Mississippi State, and for many years lived in Memphis, Tennessee. When he retired, he moved to Jackson, Mississippi. Mr. Thompson worked as a bank examiner and for about five years was the Regional Director for the Memphis REgion of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) which included Tennessee, Arkansas, Mississippi, and Louisiana, or a total of about 700 banks with 100 examiners of which he was responsible for.

Mr. Thompson hopes to publish the Thompson family history and genealogy and since so many of the people of this area would be interested in this work, Mr. Thompson would appreciate hearing from them and receiving any information they may have on their particular branch of the family. This material can be mailed directly to him at 4647 Kelton Drive, Jackson, Mississippi, 39211, or be mailed to The Ledger in which case we will forward the material. Dates from old Bible records, pictures of any of the Thompsons, and so forth are welcomed.

And now, as a Bicentennial Feature from The Ledger, here is the Thompson story.

THE THOMPSONS OF TANGIPAHOA
By James W. Thompson

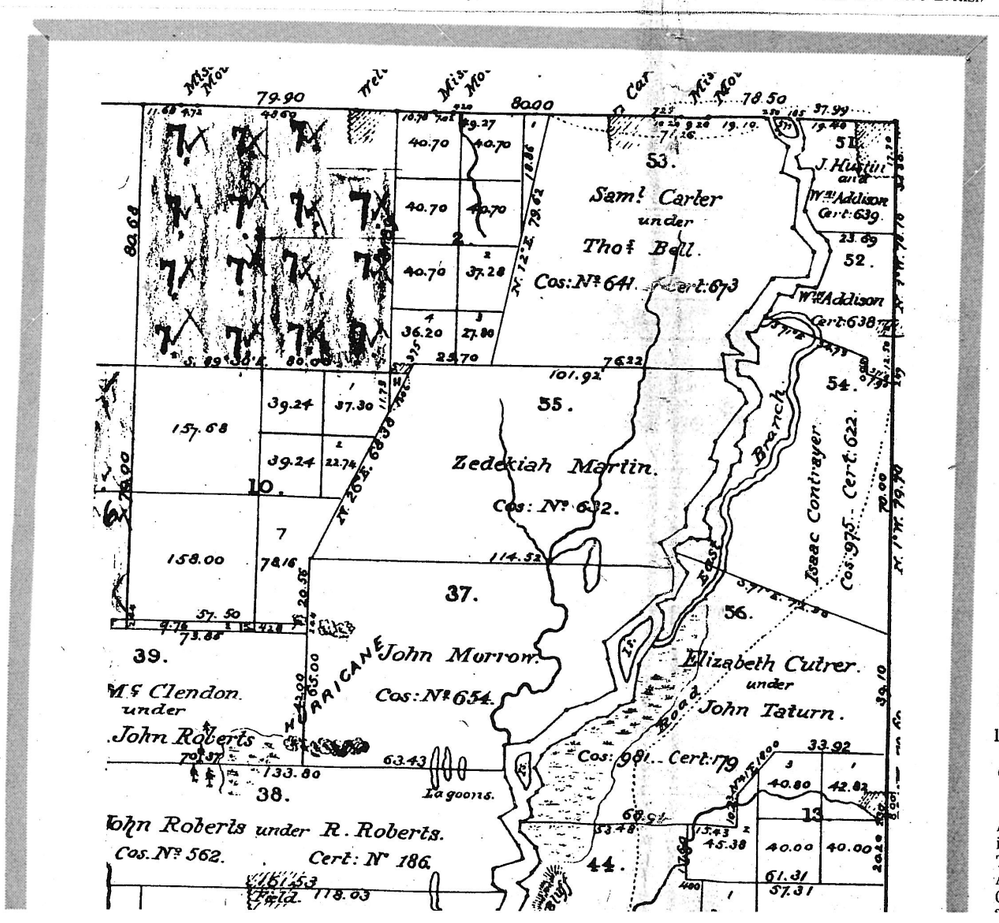
The second son of William and Hannah Bell Thompson (as listed above) was Balaam, born October 13, 1745. On November 2, 1764, he married Olive Melton in Onslow County, North Carolina, and she was an orphan, the daughter of William Melton, Jr., and his wife, who was an Ennett, a daughter of Edmund Ennett, Jr., and granddaughter of Edmund Ennett, Sr., the latter dying in Onslow County in early 1735.

Balaam and his wife Olive lived in Chatham County, where he became a prominent citizen, serving as a Justice of the Peace for Chatham County. During the Revolutionary War the state of North Carolina decided that it wanted to acquire an iron works (or mine) on Tick Creek in Chatham County, owned by Balaam Thompson, and the state did acquire it by purchase to aid the war effort. During the war the Chatham area suffered severely from the depredations of Tories (Americans who were British sympathizers) under Col. David Fanning, whose narrative has been published in other works. Fanning relates how he had reached an agreement to meet with the American rebels under a flag of truce to discuss peace terms, but was waylaid by a force of rebels which gave every evidence of an intention to kill him, until Balaam Thompson rode up and insisted that the truce be honored.



Balaam's wife, Olive, died either at the birth of Ruth or shortly thereafter, about 1790. Balaam subsequently married again, his second wife being Hannah McSwane, and they had four children:

(1) George, who married and had at least one daughter, Rebecca Jane;

(2) Elizabeth who married Eli Teague on September 24, 1824;

(3) Charles, who died about 1820, and,

(4) Balaam McSwane Thompson, born August 16, 1798, after his father had died in early 1798. Balaam McSwane Thompson married Jane Thompson on April 7, 1818, and moved to Henderson County, Tennessee, where he died August

(1) William, who married Nancy Ward and moved to the area now Tangipahoa Parish. We will give more about William later.

(2) Eleanor, born July 16, 1768, married Johannon Ricks. They moved to Tangipahoa and owned land adjoining William and Jeremiah Thompson. Eleanor died about 1845.

(3) Dorcas, married a Melton.

(4) Balaam, Jr., married Catherine, last name unknown, had at least four children, and moved to Highland County, Ohio, where he died November 29, 1855.

(5) Jeremiah, born April 26, 1778. He will be discussed at length later.

(6) Hannah, who married George Brewer and moved to Georgia.

(7) Rebecca, who married Thomas Bryan.

(8) Charlotte, about whom we have no information.

(9) Mary, who married Nathan Brewer and had at least two children.

(10) James, who married a cousin, Letitia Self, and had at least four children, and,

(11) Ruth, about whom we have no information.

Jeremiah Thompson and his wife Sarah Tally had eleven children, but there is an outside possibility that there was a twelfth child. The eleven children were as follows:

(1) Balaam, born October 30, 1808, died February 18, 1848. No information on wife or possible children.

(2) Thomas Thompson, ancestor of this writer, born November 27, 1810, died October 21, 1853, in St. Helena Parish of yellow fever. He married Alcenith R. Watson, daughter of Willis Watson, on December 20, 1832. They had four children, Elijah Marion born May 30, 1843, Zemily Minerva born April 24, 1845, Winfield Scott born July 5, 1848, (grandfather of the writer), and Andrew Jackson born February 10, 1850. In 1869 Thomas' widow, Alcenith Watson Thompson, and the four children all moved to Montgomery County, Mississippi.

(3) Sarah, born September 2, 1812. No information about her death, marriage, or possible children.

(4) Elijah, born September 26, 1814, died November 15, 1840, and married Mary Watson, and they had one child, Thomas Benton Thompson.

(5) Jeremiah, born December 16, 1816, died September 3, 1848, married Malinda Lindsey. The widow is listed in the 1850 census as 28 years old, with four children: Mary 12, Elijah 10, Elizabeth 6, and Hardy 2.

(6) Margery M., born February 4, 1819, died April 2, 1897, married Wiley McDaniel, who was born August 22, 1818. They had eleven children: R. A. born February 23, 1840, Elijah born September 19, 1841, M. E. born October 27, 1843, Elias born October 27, 1845, S. F. born February 25, 1850, M. J. born April 30

Thompson, born about 1720-21 in Surry County, Virginia. In about 1742-43 he married Hannah Bell, a daughter of John Bell and his wife Hannah, surname unknown. Their first four children are recorded in the Albemarle Parish Register:

(1) John, born June 24, 1744, died 1811 in Chatham County, North Carolina;

(2) Balaam, born Oct. 13, 1745. We will discuss Balaam at length later in this article.

(3) William, born Aug. 10, 1747, died after 1797, probably in Chatham County, North Carolina; and,

(4) Susannah, born Nov. 16, 1749, who married Martin Kendrick.

Other children in the family were (5) Mary, who married a Mr. Self, probably Parrish Self;

(6) Sarah, who married Simon Terrell and moved to Georgia;

(7) Hannah, who married Aaron Terrell, brother of Simon, and,

(8) Ann, who married William Kendrick, moving in 1791 to Washington County, Georgia, and in 1810 to Morgan County, Georgia.

William Kendrick moved in 1818 to St. Helena Parish, Louisiana, near his eldest son, Benjamin, who had come to Louisiana in 1798. Another son, Kenyon Thompson Kendrick, also moved to Louisiana. Benjamin Kendrick was the builder of the well-known ante-bellum home near Jackson known as "Asphodel" in East Feliciana Parish. It was apparently due to the influence of Benjamin Kendrick that the two Thompson brothers came to Louisiana. William Thompson and his wife, Hannah Bell, moved from Virginia to Chatham County, North Carolina, and for years operated a well-known ferry on Deep River very near the Gulph community. William Thompson died, apparently in 1773, and the will of his wife, Hannah, is recorded at the May, 1788 term of court of Chatham County, North Carolina.

Original Land Grants of Thompsons

THIS MAP IS a portion of the original land plat of Township 1 South, Range 7E and shows the Tangipahoa River area from the Mississippi state line southward to the area just north of the George Lanier place. At the bottom portion of the map and on the east side of the river is a part of the claim of Jeremiah Thompson. More of Jeremiah's land fell into the next township south. The dotted line going through his place and across the river is about where the A & P Milk Plant is located today. Just east of Present-day Kentwood is the land grant of William Thompson, today bisected by La. 38 East. North of William Thompson was Johannon Ricks property. Note too the dotted line showing what is today the Old River Road. -Map courtesy of Sherman L. Cutrer.

widow married Moses Varnado and they had four children. The Varnado family Bible records the children of William and Nancy Ward Thompson as follows:

(1) Terrell, born November 22, 1804, who married on June 10, 1830, a girl whose first name was Elizabeth;

(2) Maria, born December 25, 1805, married John Roberts in March of 1821;

(3) Hannah, born July 4, 1806, but there is an obvious conflict in dates, as this date is not possible if the date for the next older child is correct. Hannah married Joseph Cutrer in August, 1825.

(4) Balaam, born September 16, 1807;

(5) William, born October 29, 1809;

(6) James, born February 22, 1812, and,

(7) Rebecca, born July 10, 1813, married William Pearl Varnado. The Varnado Bible also lists a William Green Thompson, born September 14, 1837, but this writer does not know who he was.

Jeremiah Thompson was the fifth child of Balaam and Olive Melton Thompson, born in Chatham County, North Carolina, on April 26, 1778. He was still in Chatham County on November 27, 1800, for on that date he and his sisters, Rebecca, Ruth, and Dorcas, sold land which had fallen to them "as Legatees and Children of Balaam Thompson, Esqr., deceased". Apparently Jeremiah came to Louisiana as early as 1802, according to American State Papers, Vol. 3, Public Lands, under the topic "Abstract of Actual Settlers" on page 69. Knowing that Jeremiah Thompson married Sarah Tally, this writer was long puzzled by a marriage on December 23, 1807, in Wilkinson County, Mississippi, of Jeremiah Thompson and Sarah Jones. This mystery was resolved by Mrs. Irene R. Morris, who discovered that Jeremiah Thompson acquired certain land through his marriage to the widow of Hardy Jones. So Sarah Jones was the same person as Sarah Tally!

Sarah Tally was born December 27, 1789, according to the marker at her grave, but the date of her death is not known to the writer. It must have been in late 1863, however, because on January 5, 1864, papers were filed in St. Helena Parish on behalf of the interest of four minor children of Sarah's deceased son, Thomas Thompson, for their interest "in the succession of Mrs. Elizabeth Thompson, their paternal grandmother". This writer does not know why she was called Elizabeth instead of Sarah in these documents. Perhaps her name was Sarah Elizabeth. Sarah Tally was supposed to have been of Indian descent, but this writer has never been able to acquire any definite information about her parents.

When Jeremiah came to Louisiana in 1802, the portion of Tangipahoa Parish where he settled was a part of Spanish West Florida. In 1810 many of the American settlers revolted against Spain and set up the short-lived Republic of West Florida. On the courthouse grounds at Franklinton is a monument to the men of Washington Parish (until 1869 the area

James (Jim) McDaniel, who was born June 20, 1823. Numerous descendants reside in the Kentwood area.

(9) Kennon Kendrick, born March 9, 1826, died January 24, 1899, married Mosella Tate, and had at least seven children.

(10) Delilah Octavia, born June 30, 1828. No information on date of death, marriage, or possible children.

(11) John Washington, born June 12, 1831, died 1878. He married Frances E. "Piety" or "Pidy" Ricks and they had six children: Rafe born December 2, 1852, twins Barby Alice and Hezzie born August 9, 1854, Johnie born January 8, 1865, Margany Dean (Kitty) born December 7, 1866, and Thadious Alonzo (Dump) born June 5, 1871. One Bible record lists another child as if he were a son of Jeremiah and Sarah Tally Thompson, but other Bible records do not include him as their child. This is Andrew Jackson Thompson, born October 11, 1839, and this writer thinks that he may have been a son of a deceased son of Jeremiah, not a son of Jeremiah and Sarah, who would have been almost 50 at the date of Andrew Jackson's birth.

Reverting to the ancestry of Jeremiah, specifically to Hannah Bell, wife of William Thompson in North Carolina, we have information on the Bell family and on the related Bennett family of Virginia. Hannah Bell was born about 1721-2 in Surry County, Virginia, and died in May, 1788, in Chatham County, North Carolina, the daughter of John Bell and his wife, Hannah, last name unknown. John Bell died in 1746 and his wife died in 1768. He was the son of another John Bell, 1668-1713, and his wife, Ann Bennett. Ann Bennett was the daughter of Richard Bennett, Jr. His father, Richard Bennett, Sr., of Isle of Wight County, Virginia, made a deed of gift to Ann Bell "now the wife of John Bell, lately Ann Bennett, daughter of Richard Bennett, Jr." The elder Richard Bennett (1625-1709) was probably a son of Thomas and Alice Bennett, although this is not certain.

There are many gaps in the above account of the Thompsons. The writer hopes, within the next two years, to publish a history of the Thompson family, and would like to include any additional information, particularly complete information on all descendants of Jeremiah down to the present time. Contact the writer at 4647 Kelton Drive, Jackson, Miss. 39211, or information will be forwarded if you contact the editor of The Kentwood Ledger.

KHS takes win

Independence trounced Doyle, 60-41, in the finals of the Greensburg High School Invitational Tournament Saturday night.

Kentwood trimmed Springfield, 38-34, in the consolation. Estus Smith netted 22 tallies for the 'Roos and Randy Dedon and Louis Moore both scored 11 for Springfield.
